History

The Artists' Workshop, Inc. is a nonprofit organization. It had its beginnings in 1957 when fifteen art enthusiasts met in a local restaurant. Together, they formed New Smyrna's first chartered art group in March 1958.

MISSION STATEMENT

"The Artists' Workshop of New Smyrna Beach, Inc. strives to enrich lives by fostering a supportive, vibrant environment which promotes opportunities to learn, create, exhibit and appreciate art."

Artists' Workshop Studios

The Artists' Workshop Studios (located at 540 Barracuda Blvd.) are used for on-going art classes, meetings, special workshops and self-directed study groups.

Monthly membership meetings are held at the studios on the first Wednesday of each month, September through May. They begin with a social at 6:30 P.M. The business meeting starts at 7:00 P.M. and is followed by a lecture or demonstration from a qualified artist. These are free and open to the public.

Artists' Workshop Gallery

The Artists' Workshop Gallery (located at 115 Canal St.) exhibits and sells the artwork of members through new, monthly themed shows and is operated by volunteers from the Workshop. Community exhibits, also arranged by member volunteers, are available for personal or group shows at various venues around town.
