Gallery Pre-Opening

Constanz Elder

The Artists' Workshop Gallery lit up Canal Street on November 3rd, as we reestablished our presence at the First Saturday Art Walk. This "Pre-Opening" event was held from 4 - 8 P.M. We welcomed city and county officials, art groups, and the Chamber members to our opening "MARITIME MADNESS" exhibit.

Located on the east side of the newly-renovated New Smyrna Beach Chamber of Commerce building, 115 Canal St., the Artists' Workshop Gallery is now open Monday - Friday, 11 A.M. - 3 P.M., as well as during each First Saturday Art Walk, from 4- 8 P.M. Come visit our new "ROULETTE: ROUGE ET NOIR" exhibit. (See page 3 for more gallery events.)

Nancy Hagood, Lyn Strong, Betty Parker, and Joan Zetka enjoy Gallery Pre-Opening.

City Commissioner Jack Grasty talks with Bob Grayson.

Librarian's Corner

Joan Zetka

A heartfelt "Thank you" goes out to Vai Duers for her donation of over 60 books to our library. These are all worthwhile art books; many of them are brand new and most are books we didn't previously have on our shelves. She also donated a dozen new, untouched canvases of various sizes and a folding easel. Vai is a longtime member and a former president of the Artists' Workshop.

Classes Update

Maryann Oliver and Mary Gerlach

There has been a positive response to the request for Open Studio volunteers. Judy Mullee will monitor OS on Monday afternoon and Joyce Iasimone will fill in for Maryann Oliver on Thursday afternoons while she is away for the Thanksgiving Holiday.

It is important to have someone visible at the studio all the time. Because we continue to grow, it is necessary to have volunteers available to open up the studios, answer the phone, give tours and answer questions of visitors. Any volunteer may work on his/her own work but would be responsible first to the Artists' Workshop duties. We are looking for folks who would stay for a three hour session once a week or once or twice a month. "Many hands make light work" and the more volunteers we have, the less work we would request from a few

Please consider this very helpful and necessary duty. It is a chance to give back to an organization you all love. Call or email Maryann Oliver at 386-345-4635, mboinfla@bellsouth.net

The awards for the Artists' Workshop Members' Show come from donations. These donations come not only from our suppliers and friends like Southern Paint, Jennings Insurance and Marine Discovery Center, but they also come from individuals - individuals like you. You have the unique opportunity to fund an individual award this year. Why not sponsor an award to honor a special individual, or join together with some friends to create your own special award. Minimum donation: $100.

In Memory Frank Bartolucci

Longtime Artists' Workshop member Frank Bartolucci died on Sunday, October 21, 2012. Born February 12, 1928 in the Bronx, New York, he served in the Korean War from 1950 to 1952 and later became a professional linotype operator for the Ithaca Journal. He was a member of the Ithaca Art Association and New Smyrna Beach Artists' Workshop winning numerous awards in both organizations. His final request was instead of sending flowers....Buy Art! (from obituary)

Lyn Asselta demonstrates her colorful pastel landscape techniques at Nov meeting.

Monthly Meetings

If you haven't made it to the Artists' Workshop monthly membership meetings lately, you've missed out on some excellent artist demonstrations.

Beginning in January, we plan to streamline the business portion of the monthly meetings so we can begin the artist demonstration portion sooner. There will be only one social period, from 6:30 - 7:00 P.M. A short business meeting will run from 7:00-7:15 P.M., and the guest artist demonstration will start shortly thereafter.

On Jan 2, our guest artist demo will feature Robert Simone, presenting his upcoming "Painting Beaches, Dunes, and Surf, in Oil" workshop. So come early; meet, greet, and eat with your fellow members, then sit down to hear a brief members' update and enjoy a great artist demo.

"Barnacle Bill" Gerlach and Grace Foley setup goodies for the Nov social table.

Youth Art Programs

Regina Wise

The Art is...Creation After School Art Program (A.S.A.P.) has budding Artists 5 1/2 through 11th Grade. Four of our younger artists are accompanied by a parent or grandparent which has proven to be a very successful collaboration. This semester we have had a total of 19 children & youth take part in the After School Art Program, eight of whom are sponsored.

The 2013 Summer Art Camp will be held the last three weeks of June. Dates: Kids Create, June 10- 14, and Teen Extreme, June 17 -21 and June 24 to 28th. We need teachers to sign up to teach a one day class and volunteer helpers for these weeks. Please check your calendars so you can have the date that suites your schedule and let Regina know.

A special "Thank You" to those who have donated to Art is...Creation so that no child will be turned away. As we approach end of year giving time, please consider choosing Art is...Creation for your end of year tax deductible donations. This will give us the opportunity to extend scholarships to children and youth who need financial assistance. Contact Regina Wise at 386-428-1876.

From the President

Laura Robinson

I hope to see you all at the Holiday Luncheon on December 4 at the Smyrna Yacht Club. It will take the place of the December General Meeting and is always a wonderful way to start the holiday season. During the luncheon, Dr. James Murphy will present the prizes for the Spectrum III show at the Library.

Now that we have been increasing the advertising of classes and workshops, we need to keep the studio open during regular hours in case we have people enquiring about our programs. We would like to build a team of volunteers to greet visitors and answer the phone. If you don't have much time but are wondering what you can do to give back to the Artists' Workshop, we could use your help, one morning or afternoon a week or even once a month. Bring some artwork to do while you are there. We especially need volunteers for Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. Let Maryann Oliver know if you would like to volunteer.

Our annual open house will be held on Saturday, March 16. This year we are trying out some new events. Our Members' Show will be on display and the artwork will be for sale. Members will also be able to set up tents or tables to sell artwork. Gather up your unused art supplies and frames. They can be sold by you or donated to Artists' Workshop to sell during the open house. Stay tuned for more information about "Lagoonacy" as events develop.

(Lagoonacy – "Celebrate the insanely fascinating and beautiful Mosquito Lagoon, Indian River and all the waters contributing to this community with a day of fun, food and festivities.")

From the Editor:

Thanks for all the positive feedback on the newsletter. We're trying to make it better each month. We hope you can get out and see our gallery exhibits and Art in Public Places venues during the upcoming holiday season. There's some great artwork to see! Have a Happy Thanksgiving and hope to see you at the Holiday Luncheon on Dec 4th!
