Classes Update

Maryann Oliver and Mary Gerlach

At the end of this month a fresh Winter/Summer schedule will come out. Please keep a sharp eye opened as there are new exciting Guest Artist Sessions as well as our regular team of teachers. To give you a "sneak peek", I can let you know that Christophe Cardot will add a Painting class on Monday afternoons. He will still maintain his Thursday morning class, but is expanding. He has room for students in both time slots. The Mixed Media class will be taking a short hiatus so please keep in touch if that is your interest.

We have an exciting group of Guest Artists:

Michelle Davidson will be teaching another Fused Glass class on January 25, from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. It is $55 to make 3 pieces with supplies provided. This is a one day class that will teach you the basics of creating fused glass jewelry. The only tool to bring is your creativity. If you are interested, email her at fusedmd@yahoo.com.

Lisa Brooks will offer two 4-week classes in Photoshop, and Web Design, beginning the middle of February. Classes will be held Tuesday afternoons, 1 - 4:00 P.M. and cost $100 for each 4-week session, with a $25 deposit to hold your place. The first offering is "Photoshop." You'll learn about the elements of good photographic composition, resizing images, tools for tweaking photos, and the use of layers & filters. The second 4-week class (mid-Mar into Apr) will be "Web Design for the Artist," using FREE web production templates and tools. This class is for beginners thru intermediates, and by the end of the first class students will have a published web page. There is a limit of 8 participants per class. Students must be able to bring their own laptop computer to class. Free WiFi is offered at the AWI studios. Call Lisa for more information: 386-402-0782.

Bob Grayson will return with the Colored Pencil on Mylar class for Wed. mornings in April. We continue to offer Life Study on the 2nd Monday evenings and Clay Sculpture on Thursday evenings.

For general class questions, please call Maryann Oliver: 386-345-4635.

(Details on the Youth Summer Art Camp and schedules will be coming next month...)

From the President

Laura Robinson

Lagoonacy will be here before we know it, and a planning meeting will be held on Thursday, January 24, from 9:00 - 11:00 A.M. at the Marine Discovery Center. At this meeting, you will get an overview of all the activities planned for March 16. Everyone is invited to this meeting.

The Artists' Workshop will be focusing on tours of our studio, telling people about our classes and workshops, conducting children's art activities, and working in the Art Market. The Members' Show will be hung throughout the studio so every artist represented will have great exposure. We will need volunteers to work in all of these activities.

Do you need more space in your studio? Why not donate art supplies, framing materials and art books that you are not using to the Art Market at Lagoonacy on March 16. Take-in day will be just prior to the event. Please don't bring things to the studio now. Donation receipts for your taxes will be given to all donors. The Art Market will also be a great place to pick up some things inexpensively.

As part of the Art Market, we will also have space for members to set up a booth or table to sell their art. This is the first time we are trying this and would like to establish it as an annual benefit for members.

From the Editor:

Hopefully, all our members are able to access the Artists' Workshop Inc. newsletters online without problems. Our webmaster, Lisa Brooks, has added an update link for Adobe Reader free software to our AWI website homepage so you can easily read the latest .pdf files.

We've also included recommended instructions for printing .pdf documents, if you want to print out a page or more of the newsletter for reference:
