Strappo is a combination of painting and printmaking utilizing the plastic nature of acrylic paint to produce a monotype. Images are first painted in layers on a clean glass surface. When dry the layered monoprint is pulled away from the glass surface as one unified image. Harold Garde's dry image transfer technique has been recognized as a specific printmaking monotype procedure by the New York Metropolitan Museum.

55th Annual Members'
Show (continued)

Katty Smith

Marilynne Roland stepped up and secured our Judge, Marc Barrett, back in October. The day of receiving the artwork, Gail Waters, Lyn Strong and Sylvia Spradlin kept flawless records and greeted our members. What a talent Kathy O'Meara is at displaying art and this time in a space where a show had never been hung before! Of course, she could never have accomplished this without John Strong climbing the ladder and hammering those hangers. This is not a one-person job! The wonderful identifying cards next to your artwork were created by Laura Robinson. Transporting artwork to our luncheon required Bob Grayson and Joe Anglin.

Ruby Jones, along with Cheri Erdman, took our reservations for the luncheon and greeted you upon arrival. Cheri also gave a memorable invocation! We will long remember the lovely table decorations by Gretchen Nass and Lyn Strong. Some of you were lucky enough to win the arrangements created in ceramic vessels made by John Strong.

The members' reception on Sunday was well attended and beautifully staged by Margaret Anglin and Ruby Jones. They had an abundance of food supplied by our members.

My sincere appreciation to each of you who said yes when asked to take on a responsibility. Not a single member said no to helping with the 55th Annual Members' Show. That is amazing for an all-volunteer organization! Thank you.

Winners pose for a group shot at the luncheon

The abstract series of Cheri Erdman has attracted pleased patrons at the New Smyrna Beach Library. Impressed expressions of Nancy Hagood's ex-impressionistic work in the Oak Hill Library find their way into the Oak Hill newsletter. The scene at the Edgewater Library is scenery by several artists. Helen Curry Benet holds up the art tradition from which we all draw in the Oak Hill City Hall. Bob Grayson draws out the best in the New Smyrna Beach City Hall. Different artists and their genres reach a shared communion in mutual reflections in the Community Hall of the United Church of Christ.

Our artists are working hard and planning in advance, giving value and respect to their own productions, the venue, the public, and the civilization we build together. Sometimes we think that we are not doing much until we stop and find out that people depend on us. Check the schedule (at left) and give us a call ASAP. Try it - you'll like it.

Regina Wise

14th Annual High School Art Show

Sponsored by The Artists' Workshop

The Artists' Workshop will once again sponsor our future artists and appreciators who one day will become members of the AW. Every year we curate, assemble and hang the show at the New Smyrna Beach Regional Library. This year the work will be hung on May 1, 2013 and the Awards Ceremony will be May 5, 2013 at 2:15 P.M.

Each year we award 12 monetary prizes for 3 Best of Show, 3 Distinguished Artist and 9 Merit Awards in each discipline: Drawing & Painting, Photography, and Ceramics/Sculpture, and need donations to cover this worthy outreach to the youth of our community. Please send your donation made out to Artists' Workshop and earmark it for the High School Show. Mail to Regina Wise 1220 Commodore Dr, New Smyrna Beach, FL 32168.

Volunteers are also needed to help mount and hang the work. Contact Regina Wise 386-428-1876 or wiseregina@gmail.com. Thank you.

Summer Art Camp

Summer Camp is the last three weeks of June - from June 10 to 14 for Kids Create: 5 ½ years to 5th Grade; and Teen Extreme: June 17-21 & June 24-28. It is fast approaching so please check your calendar and choose a day to be a Volunteer or Guest Instructor. We already have children signed up and expect to double our numbers. Many will need financial assistance. Last year we had 54 children and sponsored 20. We will not turn any child away who desires to be at summer art camp. Please help us make this art experience a life-changing event in a young artist's life.

Sponsorship is $100 a week for one child. Other donation amounts are gratefully appreciated. Contact: Regina Wise 386-428-1876 or go online to www.artiscreation.org to sponsor or donate.

Katty Smith, Laura Robinson, and Joe Anglin cut the cake at the Members' Show Opening Reception.

During this past month, there have been a number of "firsts". It was the first time for the Members' Show in the Studios. There were 90 pieces of art in the show and it was a big job to hang it. I think we will enjoy seeing it daily while working in the studio. For next year, we have the option of using a set of 6 tall, free-standing racks to increase our hanging capacity. A big "Thank You" should go to Katty Smith for her excellent work on the Member's Show. Thank you also to all her volunteers who Katty has so gratefully thanked in her article on the Members' Show in this newsletter.

It was also the first time for Lagoonacy. You would not believe how much site clean-up was necessary to hold an event outside on the grassy area! The Art Market was a big success. We made $722.50 from the Art Market sales! Thank you to all who put in countless hours helping prepare for Lagoonacy, for those who donated items to sell, and for all the participants who had booths, demonstrated plein air, who worked with the children and greeted our guests. It could not have been done without you.

Artists' Workshop programs are sponsored in part by a grant from the Cultural Council of Volusia County.
