The art classes committee has been working during the summer months, primarily organizing the classes schedule for the upcoming year. There will be some time and day changes and new offerings to keep our busy organization "abuzz". Please review the new classes brochure. The 2014-2015 Classes Brochure will be easier to read plus will give you the 2014-15 Gallery schedule too!

At the studios, the clipboards for class sign-ups are hanging on the wall going to the kitchen (in Studio B). As in the past, classes start at various times, so the sooner you sign-up the better, and you will be contacted by the instructor. Or --- feel free to call or email the instructor to sign up for classes, if that works for you.

Again, we will be providing an Open Studio every day of the week (Mon.- Sat.). Check the brochure for time and day. We are very thankful for all of the Open Studio monitors. Providing a time for members to come to the studios and work is a wonderful benefit.

Come to our first general meeting, September 3rd, 6:30 p.m. The classes brochure and many teachers will be there to share in the excitement of the new year. Last but not least - A big WELCOME to the new members of the art classes committee: Ella Lawless and Pat Muscarella!

In Memory Phyllis Sheriff

Artist Workshop member Phyllis Sheriff, 66, of
New Smyrna Beach, died this past May 21, 2014.
She found art late in her life and quickly produced some amazing abstract paintings before moving into mixed media where she wowed everyone with her artistic touch.
She made everyone who knew her a better person and she will be missed terribly. (from Daytona News-Journal Obituary)

Your Art In Public Places

Jane Owen

This is the time to both think about and prepare your exhibit pieces for the coming year. Doing without sharing is sad. Prepared, you can enjoy the show without hassle. You'll be happy with your spots and work and have time to invite those who will synergize with your efforts and give positive feedback. So remember: There are spots in the New Smyrna, Edgewater, and Oak Hill Libraries, the New Smyrna and Oak Hill City Halls, the UCC Community Hall, and the Bert Fish Medical Center Lobbies. If you have another venue in mind, let us know, and we will see what can be done. Betty Parker will be the next featured artist in the large entry and auditorium gallery hall of the NSB Library. The main room area near the computers is still open as are the subsequent shows there. Jeanne Grise, Toelle Hovan, Helen Benet, Cheri Erdman and others are being scheduled this season. There is still plenty of room, but don't wait. The winner of the last Bert Fish competition is Constanz Elder and well-deserved. Bert Fish will tell us when they conclude voting on the present exhibit. At that time, the next exhibit will be open to those who have a body of work which could benefit from the winner's wall if they come out first. Exhibits last 2-3 months, shorter under special circumstances. Commit and you will get it done.

AIPP exhibits come with the possibility of holding a reception and/or artists' talk in most venues. Despite the need, we have taken only occasional advantage of the opportunity. Art presentations with lecture material and illustrations are a fuller form of that service. Knowing the cultural furnishing of the artist's head provides a chance of perceiving in the work the choices made consciously or unconsciously by the artist and the associated feeling or meaning. Filling this need benefits both the artist and public and further develops a cultural language understood by many and informed preferences for some expressions over others. We had a successful and well-covered reception August 3 for artists Nick Harroun, Jim Houpt, and Kim Kisellus in the UCC Community Hall.

Art in Public Places is looking for volunteers for the following areas:

- Photographer: Photograph AIPP venues, artwork, and exhibits.
- Media/Promotion: Provide copy & images to local media, area art organizations, etc.
- Art Education/Presentation: Present educational materials & lead art history discussions in area libraries.

Send in your drawings, plans, and suggestions soon. Let's not wait for the fall panic. Contact Jane Owen at owenrix@earthlink.net, 386-428-1225.

Join us Tuesday,
September 9th, 4-6 P.M. at the AWI Studios.

The art book club begins
"IL Gigante: Michelangelo, Florence, and the David 1492-1504", by Anton Gill.

Sept.- Oct. book:
"IL Gigante"

"IL Gigante" by Anton Gill is about the strife and turmoil in early 16th-century northern Italy, culminating with a wonderfully written, fast-paced description of Michelangelo's actual sculpting of the David. "It was to become a symbol not only of the independence and defiance of the city of Florence but also of the tortured soul who created it. This is a wonderful history of the artist, his times, and one of his most magnificent works." We will be utilizing this book for the months of September and October.

Our meetings are held at the Artists' Workshop Studios. Bring drink and goodies to share. Remember our meeting times are the second Tuesday of the month from 4 to 6 P.M. All members are welcome and can join us at any point.

From the President

Joe Anglin

Dear Members,

The plans, which are exciting for the Artists' Workshop for 2014-15, are well underway as you can see in this Newsletter. I urge all of us to take classes and/or a workshop this year and I look forward to participating with many of you. Both programs have very interesting teachers this season.

I will give an update on the current site improvements at our September 3rd General Meeting, and hope to see many of you there. Hope all have had an enjoyable summer.
