57th Annual Members' Show Gail Waters

It's time to start working on your entries for the Artists' Workshop 57th Annual Members' Show, coming up in early March. All active AWI members as of December 2014, should be receiving their show prospectus in the mail the last week of January. (Entry is limited to members in good standing as of 3 months prior to the show, per AWI by-laws.) We've got some great events planned to showcase and celebrate your best work. Be sure to mark your calendars with the key dates/activities associated with the show:

Entry Date: Monday, March 2, 2015

9 A.M. - 4 P.M. at AWI Studios

Opening Reception: Friday, March 6, 2015

6 - 8:00 P.M. at AWI Studios

Awards Luncheon: Saturday, March 7, 2015

11:30 A.M. Sugar Mill Country Club
(R.S.V.P. due by March 2, 2015)

Show Closing: Friday, March 20, 2015

Artwork pickup 9 A.M. - 4 P.M.

We hope you plan on participating. If you have any questions or have not received your prospectus in the mail by the end of January, contact Gail Waters, at 386-943-9300 or email: waters_g@bellsouth.net.

Eileen Kepper - Next Member Meeting Carolyn Land

Our demonstrator at the February 4th member meeting will be Eileen Kepper. Eileen has been creating mosaics for the past ten years, originally using leftover materials from her home renovations, and installing them on homes in her neighborhood. She thinks of them as jewelry for the home's exterior. Lately, bored with the endless beige tones of most porcelain tile, she has begun working with stained glass pieces. She loves the bright tropical colors she can get using a wider variety of things. Many people tour her neighborhood to see the herons, dolphin, angelfish, and flamingo mosaics. She is now marketing them in the Volusia County area.

"BLACK & WHITE AND ART ALL OVER" is the upcoming February exhibit. Subject of artwork is the artist's choice and abstract.

Workshop artists, you are encouraged to submit works in black and white in any medium (paint, charcoal, pencil, photo, pastel, sculpture, etc.). Our aim is to cover the Gallery with black and white works. The "Art All Over" part of the title allows for color works to be included. This show is open for FIESTA weekend.

ENTRY DATE is Friday, February 6th, 9-11 a.m. in Canal Street Gallery. To enter, contact a Gallery Chair prior to the exhibit with the size of your work, and also if you have any questions about the work you would like to enter.

There is no entry fee. Gallery Chairs:

Constanz Elder: 386-426-2079, email constanzelder@gmail.com

Susan Stoddart: 386-423-1468, email susanstoddart@earthlink.net

Our January exhibit, "Village Views and Visions," is an excellent show and has been very much admired. Fifty-one artists made this a large show, and all kept to the New Smyrna Beach theme so well. It will be open for IMAGES weekend, January 30, 31, and Feb. 1. Plan to come see it then, if not before.

"BLACK & WHITE AND ART ALL OVER"

(Artists' Workshop Gallery on Canal St.)

Bert Fish Medical Center Art Competition:
Deborah Mongato, who won First Place in the last cycle's competition has new work in her solo presentation on the Winner's Wall. The Competition Wall has new candidates vying to be elected winner by the staff of Bert Fish. They are Kim Kisellus, Cheri Erdman, Carolyn Land, Ralph Redmond, Richard Bauer, Joye Shaffer, Ruby Jones, Donna Briggs, Debbie Moore, Pat Muscarella, Jim Houpt, Nancy Hagood, Jane Owen, Gretchen Nass, and Maggie Arendt. Come make your choice and see if you agree.

Nestle amid the gently rendered smooth nostalgic still-life's of Liz Clayton in the Oak Hill Library.

Encounter Ex Cathedra, the excellent patterns of effort in civilizing life by Pat Muscarella in the Edgewater Library.

The New Smyrna City Hall bears strong and silent witness to multiple entente White Out for All Seasons by Jane Owen.

The art display in the main room of the NSB Library (near the computers) features the work of Maggie Arendt, which was inspired by our First Nations.

In the NSB Library Entry and Halls you can see the work of the pastel artists shaped by teacher Carolyn Land. The consistency in quality of composition, perspective, handling of hue, treatment of medium, and mounting is remarkable. The statement is larger than just one class.

The Community Hall of the United Church of Christ (on Faulkner and Washington) holds the overriding Rides Ride by Tammy Siems, the soulful Natives R Us by Betty Spalding, and the spirited spiritual expressions of Cheri Erdman.

Now is the time to promise not just yourself but others that you will bring your work to exhibition level for the next cycle. That way you will do it and be signed up for good venues.

Artists who would like to participate in any of these presentations or exhibits or would like to move to a participating, even leadership, role in curating, installation, and networking with art-interested entities are invited to contact AIPP through the Artists Workshop. Contact Jane Owen at owenrix@earthlink.net, or call 386-428-1225.

Join us Wednesday, 3:30 P.M.
at Edgewater Library, Feb. 11

and Thursday, 3:30 P.M.
NSB Library Auditorium, Feb. 12

The work of famous trends in art is examined in context for content, technique, esthetics, and significance. New viewpoints welcome. Come. Bring friends.

From the President

Joe Anglin

Louise Lieber talks with a prospective member at the Artists' Workshop booth on Canal St., during the January 17th Home Show & Business Expo.

Dear Members,

Happy New Year to you all. The Artists' Workshop is looking toward an exciting and fulfilling New Year with many wonderful opportunities for you to join new classes and workshops, attend our monthly meetings, enter the annual Member Show, enjoy luncheons and chances to see old friends, and make new ones. What a great organization!

Your Board of Directors, some 20 or so of us, work on your behalf to make the Artists' Workshop all it can be for you and our community. There are many tasks and special events that we need your help in accomplishing this year. Please think about getting involved by asking me or one of our board members listed in your directory how you might help this year. This is our most active few months from now until May and any extra help would be great!

We also have the opportunity to enjoy the newly created salt marsh out our front door and the new mountain with spectacular views of the lagoon. Our site is evolving to become a beautiful park and center piece for our community. Our art will undoubtedly be impacted by the beauty and peacefulness the marsh brings to our AWI home.

Again, Happy New Year to all and best wishes for your art to grow and blossom as we go through the coming months together.

Artists' Workshop programs are sponsored in part by a grant from the Cultural Council of Volusia County.

From the Editor:

Be sure to keep us informed of any member awards or special accomplishments. The cutoff date for inputs for the February newsletter will be Wednesday, February 11th.
