Annual Member Dues - Due May 1st

Kathy O'Meara

Post cards will be mailed out by the end of April for your 2015-16 annual membership dues, and also to update/verify your contact information. Per the Artists' Workshop by-laws: "Artists' membership dues shall be payable on the 1st day of May and delinquent after the 30th of June." (Note to new members: If you recently joined the Artists' Workshop on or after February 1, 2015, your annual dues will not be due until May 1, 2016.)

When you return your post card with your payment, please closely review your name(s), address, email address, and phone number(s), and update any changes as necessary. We plan to have our new Membership Directory published by September 2015, and we want to make sure all of the information in it is as accurate as possible. Also, we use your email address for our Constant Contact organizational emails or "e-blasts". These informational email notices are the quickest, most secure, and most economical way to contact our members for urgent updates or reminders, especially over the summer. (Privacy Note: We respect our members privacy and do not release our members' personal information or email addresses to outside individuals or organizations.)

If you have any questions about your annual dues or member registration, contact Kathy O'Meara at 386-871-0853 or email: komeara999@gmail.com. Please also contact Kathy if you don't receive your membership post card.

MANY SPRING & SUMMER CLASSES!

Classes Update

Mary Gerlach, Ella Lawless, & Pat Muscarella

Classes and open studio sessions have resumed after our wonderful Members Show. Please contact the teachers for correct information. A new "Drawing for All" class with Betty Parker will be offered April 23 - May 2015, and again this summer.

After the Youth Summer Art Camp from June 8 to July 3rd, some classes will be offering a summer session. It is best to contact the teacher specifically for correct information. Here are a few to be offered this summer: "Jewelry" with Michelle Davidson; "Ceramics" and "Drawing from Nature" with Louise Lieber; "Drawing for All" with Betty Parker; "Color Theory/Painting" with Mary Gerlach; "Painting" with Frank Ferrante. Check website or classes brochure, or contact teachers by telephone or email to be sure of correct dates, etc.

We are looking for a volunteer, with some computer/typing skills to help with the classes committee for next year. Also they should be able to attend one Board meeting, the 2nd Wednesday of each month. (Most organization meetings are held in the summer - flexible times, setting up the new classes brochure.) Email Mary Gerlach at: marygerlach@cfl.rr.com.

Thank you to Ella and Pat for working on the classes committee this year!

Your Art In Public Places (AIPP)

Jane Owen

Art In Public Places is pleased to announce our following exhibits: Patrons of the Oak Hill Library will find their musings catalyzed by the aesthetic forms of our South Western native Americans reincarnated in the work of Maggie Arendt. The Oak Hill City Hall space is given over to the lensed worlds of photographers Kim Kisselus and Karla Kennedy. Enjoy Oils on Water, the Nature of Nature as interpreted by Babs Lupoli in the Edgewater Library. The New Smyrna City Hall recognizes the Sense of Place as sensed and stated by the Florida transplant who's found home in paint, Jim Houpt. The Community Hall of the United Church of Christ (on Faulkner and Washington) holds the sometimes cubist constructivist and agreeable insights of Pat Muscarella, the unspoken thoughts of the living in the work of Lucinda Sloan, and the invigorating floral colors of Irene Moody.

As the New Smyrna Beach Library will be closed at various times for renovations, the annual New Smyrna High School Art Show and Awards Ceremony will be located in the Barracuda Drive studios of the Artists Workshop in May. The community is welcome to visit, enjoy the art, and learn more about the art programs.

Be prepared to put your best work forward when the NSB library reopens after its beauty treatment. And not long afterwards, it will be time to renew our other exhibits. The Summer belongs to us who stay here and is a great time to explore our creative and innovative impulses in our venues which provide greater than average exposure for the artist. Be good to yourself and the community. Make happy, healthy, and wise.

Artists who would like to participate in any of these presentations or exhibits or would like to move to a participating, even leadership, role in curating, installation, and networking with art-interested entities are invited to contact Jane Owen at email: owenrix@earthlink.net.

Thank you AWI Members for your donations for the Awards for the NSB High School Art Show. We are $109.00 from our goal of $555 for the Awards. ### 5th Annual "Art Is...Creation" Summer Art Camp

We need Teachers & Volunteers. Teen volunteers can earn service hours during Kids Create Weeks.

We have many children who need financial assistance in order to attend camp. We will be collecting sponsorships and donations at the Spring Luncheon at Sugar Mill. Please consider sponsoring a child. Our camp is the most reasonable in Volusia County only $100 bucks for the whole week, all supplies included. We need your partnership to make it all happen for the young artists of our community. Our end-of-camp Art Show will be held at The Hub on Canal August 1st to August 31st. Your tax-deductible sponsorship and donation checks should be made directly to Art Is...Creation and can be mailed to Art Is...Creation, 1220 Commodore Dr., New Smyrna Beach, FL 32168 or brought to the Spring Luncheon. Thank you in advance.

Dear Members,

From the President

Joe Anglin

Thanks for a great two years. Many of you have given of your time and energy to make the Artists' Workshop a very special organization and place for all in the community to enjoy the wonder of the arts.

As I close out my terms as your President I must thank each of you who served on the Board with me. Each of you has done so much to make the time very special and we all accomplished so much together. The future for the Artists' Workshop is very bright. Your newly elected officers and new board members will work well with your returning board members.

As members of the Artists' Workshop, it is so important for us all to pitch in when we can to help our Board leaders with the many tasks to be completed for us all. Please, if I can leave you with a thought, plan to offer to help in any way you can in 2015-16, to continue the great legacy of the Artists' Workshop.

Sincerely,

Joe Anglin
President 2013-15

Artists' Workshop programs are sponsored in part by a grant from the Cultural Council of Volusia County.
