Volusia County Libraries "Great Gatsby" Art Show

The Volusia County Public Library system will sponsor a Great Gatsby art show as part of its 2017 Big Read programs. Emerging and professional artists age 18 and over are invited to submit up to three works by Nov. 15 for possible inclusion in ARTiculating Gatsby, a juried exhibit overseen by a committee of local art experts. Selected works will be displayed from Jan. 3 to 25 in the Thomas C. Kelly Administration Center, Peabody Auditorium and New Smyrna Beach Regional Library.

Artwork must reflect "The Great Gatsby," a 1925 novel written by F. Scott Fitzgerald. All media, except video, will be accepted. Artists are expected to explain the connection between their work and the novel. The library system received a $15,000 Big Read grant from the National Endowment for the Arts in May and chose "The Great Gatsby" as its theme. The library system's 13 branches and other venues will host book discussions and schedule author talks, theatrical events and music programs in January and February 2017. For more information about the art exhibit, contact Art Exhibit Coordinator Margaret Schnebly Hodge at mhodge@volusia.org or Programming Coordinator Deborah Shafer at dshafer@volusia.org.

The Artists' Workshop mourns the loss of our members or their family members who passed this summer. Our deepest sympathies go out to all family and friends:

(from Buffalo News June 5-10, 2016 online obituary.)

Herbert Martin Stofsky, age 77, of Daytona Beach, died on August 7, 2016. Herb, husband of Artists' Workshop member Irma Sue Stofsky, was the owner of The Stofsky Agency. High School Art Show

Regina Wise

The Artists' Workshop sponsored its 17th Annual New Smyrna Beach High School Visual Arts Exhibit at the New Smyrna Beach Library this past May. The exhibit showcased 63 original works of art by students in grades 9-12, in various media including photography, sculpture and 2D drawing, painting, mixed media and collage. The student art was on display for public viewing at the NSB Library throughout the month of May.

Artists' Workshop President Liz Clayton welcomed students and families, Mayor James Hathaway provided words of encouragement to the students, emphasizing how strongly the arts are woven into the fabric of the community, and AWI member Dr. Jane Owen was the Exhibit Juror who gave thoughtful commentary on each piece of art receiving an award. Fifteen NSB High School students were presented cash awards for their artistic achievements in the categories of 2D: Painting/Drawing, Photography, and 3D: Sculpture/Ceramics. Here are the award winners:

ART BOOK CLUB

Join us for food, fun, and wonderful conversation...

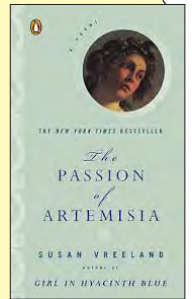

First meeting: Tuesday, Sept. 13 from 4 - 6 PM

Book: "The Passion of Artemisia" by Susan Vreeland

Place: 49 Fairway Circle

RSVP: sloanlucinda@gmail.com by Sept. 6

- Delicacies from Italy
- Video on her painting "Judith Slaying Holofernes"

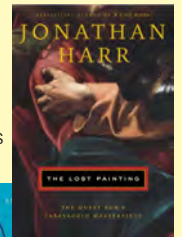

AWI MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The library has many new books of fiction, non-fiction, art history and art criticism. Many of the books the Book Club has read are available. I will be highlighting two of them this month:

Book: "The Lost Painting" by Jonathan Harr

"Harr brings his narrative talents to the story of how a Caravaggio painting, 'The Taking of Christ,' was identified after centuries of obscurity. He follows a precocious graduate student into the archives of a crumbling palazzo, an Italian restorer moored in Ireland, and a patrician British scholar, each of whom contributes a piece of the puzzle." The New Yorker

Book: "Madame Picasso" by Anne Girard

Novelist Anne Girard brings to life the mesmerizing and untold story of Eva Gouel, the unforgettable woman who stole the heart of the greatest artist of our time...A brilliant but eccentric artist, Picasso sets his sights on Eva, and Eva can't help but be drawn into his web.
