FEATURED CLASS: Join the Live Model Open Studio!

- Tuesday Open Studio - Drawing and Painting from a Live Model (Tues. evenings: 6 - 9 P.M.- Sign-up needed)
Monitor: Christophe Cardot, christopheart@yahoo.fr

After the well-deserved holiday break and the break due to the renovations and repairs to the studios, the Live Model class has started this month! Please consider joining the Tuesday evening class (6-9pm), where we draw and paint from a live model every week! I went pretty regularly last year, and it is so worth it! The professional models change every week and have great poses. The experience helps you with your drawing skills, measuring proportions, judging value, and putting down your lines and shapes fast. We warm up with several 2- and 5-minute poses, then do a few poses for 10 minutes, and end the 3-hour session with several 20-minute poses, where you can really flesh out your subject.

Most of us draw in charcoal or pencil, while some sketch in thinned oils and even add full-scale oil colors at the end, like I tried after I got comfortable.

Please consider joining the fun and see your art skills improve! For more info and the current cost, email Christophe Cardot at christopheart@yahoo.fr.

Keep painting! Ruth Squitieri

From the Gallery

JoAnne Reilly & Patrick Rausch

Congratulations to the artists who sold their work in the December & January gallery exhibits:

- "By the Sea" (Oil on Canvas) by Joan Zetka
- "Sunrise/Sunset" (Acrylic) by Fran Davidson sold January 7, reception night!
- "Hot Prickly Pear" (Acrylic) by Nanette Woodman

Raffle: A gorgeous painting by Stephen Bach, "Clapboard Church in Shadows" Raffle (see page 6) is happening in Gallery! Come by to take a chance or two on winning this exceptional painting. Suggested ticket donations are $5 each or 3 for $10! Your chances of winning are better here than in the lottery, and you'll be contributing to the Hurricane Matthew "Raise the Roof" repair fund!

Reception night, January 7, 4 -7pm at the Gallery! Brrrr...the Canadian winter chill descended on us early afternoon bringing the temp down to a bone chilling 51 degrees (felt like 31 to us Floridians!) but, in spite of the cold our patrons, friends and artists flocked to the Gallery for the opening reception "Generating Heat" and the "Heads Up" sculpture featuring 12 clay sculpted heads created in a workshop given by the prize-winning sculptor Katti Smith. The artwork warmed our chilled souls and bodies along with the wine and laughter, serious discussions on the show, and contemplation. 50+ signed the guest book, a high number for the night! If you stayed home due to the cold weather please venture out and see this incredible show as the weatherman says things are warming next week.

February show: The Canal Street Gallery will be accepting requests to exhibit for the 2017 February, "Painting New Smyrna Beach & much more", Theme show. Members, send your registration request beginning January 9-27. No late submissions please. Please submit your info to JoAnne Reilly by email: jrsb028@gmail.com.

Format for submission:

Title: Price: (Must be for sale in this show)
Medium: Size: (Limit 36"x36") (Some larger pieces accepted. Please consult JoAnne Reilly.)
Your name: Phone:
Email:

You will need to write all of the above info so I can create your label to place next to your artwork. Please, do not write the words "Title, Price, Medium, Size, Name, Phone, email" as I will just have to remove them. Save yourself and me the time, I just need the info. Please make sure to send your personal info as requested so I don't have to spend time looking it up. You will need to make an additional label with the same info to go on the back of your wall art or the bottom of your sculpture or clay piece. This is to identify your artwork. Please attach it securely. All hanging artwork needs to be WIRED securely on the back. It needs to hold the work close to the wall, not flopping please. We don't have time to rehang your piece so make sure you check it at home before bringing it in. Please refer to pages 13-15 RULES ABOUT GALLERY EXHIBITING, in your 2016-2017 Members Directory.

2017 High School Art Show

We Need A Committee Chairperson!!!

We need an Artists' Workshop volunteer to Chair this year's High School Art Show program. In 2017, the Artists' Workshop will sponsor its 18th Annual High School Exhibit and awards program. Please use this opportunity to help us continue the program and show our commitment to the youth of our community. Regina Wise has a complete folder/checklist for you to follow from past shows. You can contact her with any questions you might have at 386-847-1676, or email wiseregina@gmail.com.

Background: New Smyrna Beach High School students compete for cash awards and ribbons in the Painting/Drawing, Photography, and Sculpture/Ceramics categories. The Artists' Workshop supports the local High School Arts program by providing funds for art supplies as well as providing refreshments for the annual awards ceremony. We also rely on the generosity of our individual Artists' Workshop members to provide donations for the High School Art Show Awards Program: 15 awards (a total of $555.00 in cash awards) are distributed to the Best of Show, Distinguished Artist, and Merit Awards in all 3 student award categories.

Community Exhibits

Ruby Jones

Thanks to all who helped make January's art exhibits to our local venues so successful! Community Exhibits is all about bringing your art to public places where you have a chance to sell or get some recognition. Also is an excellent tool to promote the Artists' Workshop.

Every month we like to feature an ongoing exhibit at one of our local venue. Watercolorist, Sylvia Spradlin has generously offered to share a beautiful collection of her artwork at the New Smyrna Beach Library. Please come by and check it out! Examples of this wonderful show are shown below.

We still have space at the Edgewater Library. If anyone is interested please contact Kathy Vitale at 386-428-3933 or Ruby Jones at 386-427-9222. If you would like to know more about this program, please call any of our volunteers listed below.

Stephen Bach Painting Raffle

Stephen Bach has graciously donated his oil painting, "Clapboard Church in Shadows", to the Artists' Workshop, to be raffled with proceeds going to our "Raise the Roof" Hurricane Matthew repair fund. The painting is currently on display at the Canal St. Gallery. Suggested donation for tickets is $5 each or 3 for $10.

Stephen Bach recreates his painting at the November workshop demo.

Dear Members of The Artists' Workshop,

I hope that everyone has noticed how nice our ceilings look again with the new tiles in place. I want to thank Patrick Rausch and his wife; Ruby Jones and her husband; Marty Potter, Robert Wince, Ruth Squitieri, Nick Harroun, Joe Anglin and Christophe Cardot for their willingness to help. It was a big job, but many hands made light work!

I am looking forward to an exciting spring . . . the Members' Show, great workshops, Lagoonacy, and new classes. I am especially pleased that we are offering evening classes now. This gives us the opportunity to provide classes for people that work during the day . . . something we have not been able to do before. I encourage you to check out the evening classes by Patrick Rausch and now Scott Hiestand.

Happy New Year!
Liz
