Classes Update

Cheryl Faber & Liv Witherow

The Winter/Spring Classes Brochure is "hot off the press" and available at the studio and in our gallery. We are offering a wide variety of classes at convenient times throughout the week. We are very lucky to be able to offer evening classes for people who are unable to attend a daytime class. This winter we have Patrick Rausch offering a Monday night class in painting using either Acrylics or Oils. Tuesday evenings is our "Live Model" open studio. Then, on Thursday evening, Scott Hiestand is offering a class on painting Impressionistic Landscapes in acrylics. A discussion class on "Connecting with Art" is also offered on Thursday nights by Lucinda Sloan. We are also adding a new Friday afternoon class taught by Ruth Squitieri called, "Mastering the Masters" in either Oils or Acrylics, starting February 24.

If you just can't commit to a six week class, we also are offering two PLEIN AIR classes that will each be on two consecutive days. Frank Ferrante will be teaching one on February 22 and 23 and Cathy Berse will be teaching hers on March 13 and 14.

For those of you who haven't been at the studio in a while, we now have a door between studios B and C, which is enabling us to use the classroom space more effectively. Please drop by, pick up a brochure and consider taking one of our many classes.

"Landfill Harmonic" Film Premiere & Silent Art Auction

Mark your calendars for our first film premiere and silent art auction fundraising event! Our members are invited to donate art for the silent auction. The "Landfill Harmonic" fundraiser is scheduled for Saturday, March 25, 2017 from 6-9 p.m. at the Museum of Arts and Sciences Root Auditorium in Daytona. We wanted to reach a broader audience and the 255 seat Root Auditorium is a great venue! Collaboration is the name of this game and delicious food will be catered by the Culinary Academy of the Students of Volusia County's Teacher of the Year, Chef Jason Kester, and the Museum will sell wine and soft drinks.

The film we are screening has just been released and it has won top awards including Audience Favorite at 21 out of 22 worldwide film festivals! The documentary is an inspiring story which follows the Recycled Orchestra of Cateura, a Paraguayan youth musical group that plays beautiful symphonic music on instruments made entirely out of garbage from the largest landfill in South America which their town is built around. "The film is a testament to the transformational power of music and the resilience of the human spirit". You can learn more and watch the trailer here: www.landfillharmonicmovie.com

To donate an original framed work of art for the silent auction, follow the instructions on the flyer created by Gertrude (Trudy) Havu (at the Studios), or contact her at 386-957-4610 or 207-233-7127. Artwork drop-off date at the Studios is March 23, between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

We want this to be a celebratory win-win first time fundraiser and the proceeds will benefit adult and youth art outreach programs at Artists' Workshop and also, our partner Marine Discovery Center who helped us tremendously in our darkest hour when the roof was destroyed.

Thank you all in advance and we hope for a great event!

To be a sponsor of this event or to help out, contact Valeh Levy at valehlevy@aol.com, or 386-478-3709.

In Memoriam

Marilynne J. Roland

The Artists' Workshop mourns the loss of a dear, long-time devoted member, and past president Marilynne Roland (age 94). Marilynne passed away on January 18, 2017. She was born on April 10, 1922, in Jersey City, New Jersey. When Marilynne first moved to New Smyrna Beach, she worked in both, the editorial and advertising departments, of the Daytona Beach and the Miami newspapers, before starting a second career in the fine arts. In the art community, not only did she become a renowned artist, but also a teacher, mentor, judge, and panel moderator. She participated in the public television art series programs.

In 1985, she became president of the Florida Watercolor Society and remained a board member. She was twice president of the Artists' Workshop and was a consultant for the organization, as well as a member of the steering committee for Atlantic Center for the Arts and Harris House gallery and programs. She also had signature memberships in both, the Florida and Southern Watercolor Societies. The highlight of her art career was the invitation from Disney to be one of 12 participating artists for Epcot's Flower and Garden Festival. During her participation of 8 years, she was commissioned to do the poster for the event in 2003.

Our deepest sympathies go out to all her family and friends. Her complete obituary can be found online at:

Members' Show artwork on display at the Harris House.

Dear Members of The Artists' Workshop,

Congratulations to everyone who won an award at the Annual Members' Show. Once again we have shown the community the quality of instruction that is being offered at The Artists' Workshop. The committee that made all the arrangements which included locating Harris House, hanging the show, arranging the luncheon and reception, designing and sending out the prospectus and inviting the judge should be commended for a job well done! We continue to display our talents as artists, not only at the Members' Show, but in our galleries on Canal Street and our studio gallery as well! Thank you and congratulations to all who participated.

Liz
