Classes Update

Cheryl Faber & Liv Witherow

Congratulations to all of our clay teachers for having such a successful year! Last year at this time, we had a very limited clay department. Now, we have seven teachers offering classes in sculpture, clay basics, Raku firing, how to use the pottery wheel, and how to "hand build" architecture in clay. Our classes are full, our students are creatively happy and our kiln is being used a lot, by our students as well as AWI members who are able to have pieces fired by weight and size.

So, a very special thank you goes out to our clay teachers: Christophe Cardot, Margaret Anglin, Kathy O'Meara, Katty Smith, Debbie Simmons, Yolanda Pelz and an added congratulations to Nancy Mills, who was just approved by the Board to become an on-going teacher. Of course, none of this would have been possible without the tireless efforts of our clay coordinator, Mary Gerlach, who has shaped this into such a productive program. THANK YOU ALL!

Clay teacher Christophe Cardot's "Blue Flute Edge Clay Bowl" which sold in the Gallery in February.

Upcoming Workshops

Marylee Voegelé

The Feb. 24-26 Pat Dews "Abstract" workshop was a big success! Thank you for your fantastic support. Unfortunately, we had to cancel the Susan Hanssen workshop so we have only 1 more workshop remaining this season. Next month's final workshop is Tom Weinkle: "The Poetry of Pastel," a 2-day workshop on April 21-22, which still has spaces available so sign up soon! Contact Marylee Voegelé for more information at 386-957-4331.

Tom Weinkle presented his pastel demo to the Artists' Workshop members at our March meeting. His workshop approach encourages members to "leave behind planning and traditional pastel practices and begin to explore the act of painting guided by mood. Artists will find they will be able to bring excitement and creativity to your work by incorporating improvisation, and embracing chance as opportunity."

Tom Weinkle demonstrates his pastel techniques during the March member meeting.

18th Annual High School Art Show

Liz Clayton

The Artists' Workshop, Inc. is sponsoring its 18th Annual High School Exhibit at the New Smyrna Beach Regional Library. This is a very important part of our ongoing youth outreach programs. All are invited to the awards ceremony to be held Sunday, May 7, 2017, from 2 - 4 P.M. The Artists' Workshop supports the local High School Arts program by providing funds for art supplies as well as providing refreshments for the annual awards ceremony. The show will be up at the NSB Library through the month of May. Last year the exhibit showcased 63 original works of art by local students in grades 9 - 12.

NOTE: Many thanks to all members who contributed to the High School Art Show awards at our March meeting. We rely on the generosity of our members to support our High School Art Show awards program! Last year we presented cash awards ($550 total) to 15 winning students. You can still send donations directly to the Artists' Workshop, Inc., Attn: Treasurer, Shirley Pittman, P.O. Box 1194, New Smyrna Beach, FL 32170-1194. Thank you for your continued support.

Community Exhibits

Ruby Jones

You'll find a fantastic art collection by artist Nan Cogle, when visiting the Edgewater Library. Many thanks to Kathy Vitale, our curator there and Nan Cogle who made this art show so much fun and successful! Inspired by sea creatures and mermaids, Nan has made mixed media and collage so inviting to view and what makes this our featured venue this month.

All artists are welcome to have their own art show or be part of an exhibit at one of our many venues. Please call Community Exhibit members listed below for more information. Your next opportunity to schedule a show will be in May.

From the President

Liz Clayton

Congratulations to Gillian O'Sullivan who was the lucky winner of the Stephen Bach painting raffle. Thanks also to all who supported this effort. All proceeds went towards the "Raise the Roof" repair fund.

I hope to see all of our members at The Museum of Arts and Sciences in Daytona Beach March 25! This is the first time the Artists' Workshop has ever organized an event like this, and a lot of work has gone into the planning. Valeh Levy is to be commended for spearheading this exciting program. The funds generated from this evening will help support youth and adult programs at both Artists' Workshop and Marine Discovery Center. I also hope to see everyone at 'Lagoonacy' on April 1. Let's show the community what we have to offer at the Artists' Workshop!
