60th Annual Members' Show Update

Nancy Hagood, Gail Waters, Alicia Oestmann

It's time to start preparing for the Artists' Workshop 60th Annual Members' Show, coming up in early March. All active AWI members as of December 3, 2017 (3 months prior to show per by-laws) should be receiving their 2018 Members' Show Prospectus (with the B&W Art Deco - "Gatsby" themed cover) in the mail by the end of January. Awards for this year's show total more than $3000 so let's showcase your best work! We have some great activities planned for our 60th Anniversary as well, so we hope you plan on participating and attending the Awards Luncheon and Opening Reception/Gala events. (The Luncheon and Gala will also have "The Great Gatsby" - '20s theme so you can even plan on dressing the part if you want!)

We do need volunteers for the Luncheon & Gala. We need 4 bartenders for the Gala on March 3rd (1 1/2 hours each, two volunteers needed from 5:00 - 6:30 PM and two more from 6:30 - 8:00 PM) For the Luncheon on March 2, we need 2 hosts/hostesses to check in lunch guests beginning at 11:15 AM. If interested, contact Gail Waters at 386-943-9300. (More details on the Awards Luncheon and Opening Reception/Gala, as well as a luncheon RSVP form are located on page 4.)

Please read your Prospectus closely. If you have any questions or have not received your prospectus in the mail by the end of January, contact Nancy Hagood, at 386-690-1281 or email hagoodnancy@gmail.com.

January 28 Short-Term Class: PIT FIRING

Studio A & Out by the Fire Ring

Clay Studio is having a PIT FIRING all day on Sunday, January 28. This is another alternative firing method to explore and will substitute for the Raku Firing scheduled for that day. Under the direction of teacher Susie Means, we will build a pit and a wood fire around our pots out in back of the AWI Studios, just as Native Americans did. The heat of the fire will harden the clay and various additions such as borax, banana peels, glazes, copper wire, etc., will help color them. The class will also gather on Friday, January 26 from 1 to 4 PM to glaze pieces and to learn more about the process prior to the Sunday event.

Make your pots out of Raku type clay that can withstand the shock of fast rising irregular heat. Make them a bit thicker than usual and please don't make them larger than 9" x 9" x 9". You can bring up to 3 pieces. They need to be bisque fired when you come to the Friday Class Session. Visitors are welcome anytime Sunday, but we would love to have you come to the unveiling Sunday at 5 PM.

The class will be held in Studio A and outside in the field. $50 Members, $65 Non-Members for the 2-day session and a $10 supply fee. We will need a minimum of 4 students to hold the class. Susie Means has a great deal of PIT FIRING experience and will make this a wonderful new experience for our Clay Studio. Please contact her to register at 317-498-1202 or email susiemeans6@gmail.com.

Classes Update

Ruth Squitieri, Cheryl Faber, & Liv Witherow

There is a new method for signing up for classes. Take a moment to drop by the workshop and check out the bulletin board right inside the front door, that lists all of our classes and teacher contact information. Brochures are available below the board, so that you can read a more detailed description of the class and contact the teacher by phone or email to sign up or for more information.

Be on the lookout for emails and blogs that will be sent out in the next couple of weeks detailing our special three day "Clay Paper Sculpture" class with Maureen McLeod and our "Japanese Fish Rubbing" class with Professor Kenneth Nusbaum. We are also changing the January 26th & 28th scheduled Raku Firing to a Pit Firing being led by Susie Means (see details at left). Further information can be obtained by contacting Susie at 317-498-1202.

Please note that in preparation for our annual Members Show, the Studios will be closed the week of February 26 through March 2 and all classes will be cancelled.

Upcoming Workshops

Marylee Voegele

After the completion of a very successful workshop "Painting Coastal Scenery" with Robert Simone, we now turn our focus to the remaining two workshops. Jane Slivka's workshop, "The Freedom of Acrylics" is filling nicely with space still available. Jane will be participating in Images the last weekend in January. Her location is always on the West side of Riverside Drive close to the corner of Riverside and Douglas St. and the Harris House. Good opportunity for those not familiar with her work to stop by her booth. Hoping you are still considering signing up for Sue St. John's "Creating Paintings with the Wow Factor" workshop in March. We only have about a month on this one due to planning airfare. Don't delay and sign up soon!!! If you have any questions, don't hesitate to call me, Marylee Voegele, at 386-957-4331.

OPENINGS STILL AVAILABLE

From the Gallery

JoAnn Reilly, Patrick Rausch, & Sharon Herrold

First Saturday night opening was busy with 50 plus visitors and members enjoying the excellent exhibit of art in our first themed show of the new year titled "Depth, Drama, Luminosity" with a special edition from the clay artists titled "Mask Mischief". Come by and see how the artists used the theme in their artwork and look for the textile art gracing the gallery walls! Find the Luminosity in the paintings, see the depth created with perspective illusion and enjoy the drama unfolding in this creative show. Don't miss seeing the fun masks created in Katti Smith's clay workshop by our talented artists.

The weather was pleasant bringing in the early visitors walking gallery to gallery following the new map rack card showing AWI Gallery along with Gallery One Twenty, The Hub, Harris House and Arts on Douglas. This collaboration of galleries aims to promote NSB as a destination, inviting tourists and visitors to enjoy the Canal St. district and neighboring blocks on first Saturday art walk. It aims to encourage overnight stays and local dining as part of the gallery experience. When we work together it supports the arts and community. The map rack cards will be placed in strategic places throughout Volusia county at visitor centers and vacation destinations.

A big thanks to our hosts, Ralph Mantia, Sr., Carol Halal and Alicia Oestmann for their warm greetings and making our guests feel welcome, and to Kathy Kerrigan with her gracious charm providing wine and cheese making for a wonderful night. Tickets for the Joanne Rafferty painting are available in the gallery along with the gorgeous abstract painting. Come by and purchase your tickets to raise money for the dedication gallery classroom in our workshop. Nan Cogle's mixed media painting titled "North Carolina Wildflower" sold the first night. Love those first night sales!

Hope you are busy creating your next masterpiece for the February theme show titled "NSB IN FULL LOCAL COLOR", this theme showcases New Smyrna Beach and the Florida lifestyle. With color all around us there are endless possibilities! For inspiration take a vacation in town, at the beach, or one of the many parks, heritage sites and activities this area presents to capture the moment Plein Air style! Snap some photos and paint studio style. Work clay into a sea creature. This exhibit is open for FIESTA!! Color it in High Definition! To enter please read your new blue 2017-2018 directory, page 14 December judged gallery exhibit rules. An email has been sent to members inviting them to enter. Submit your label information no later than noon, January 29th for inclusion in this exhibit following label format:

title price medium size your name phone# email

Send info to jnsb028@gmail.com. No late entries accepted as labels are sent out for printing. Drop off art on Friday, February 2, 9-11 am. No late drop offs accepted due to time constraints installing the show. Thank you for this consideration.

NOTE: We are currently seeking Chair and Co-chair positions to be filled for our beautiful downtown gallery. Please contact JoAnn Reilly at jnsb028@gmail.com for more information.

Bob & Patty Stinziano

This month we are in the process of changing over a few of our venues, so we are not reviewing any venue this month. The artists we called are the members who signed the list at the general meeting. We will eventually get to all of you who signed up. If you are interested in showing your work in one of the venues, please contact the committee member for that venue. We will also have a sign up list available at the next general meeting. Stop by to see the new exhibits in the Edgewater Library, NSB Library, and the United Church of Christ. Thanks to Maggie Arndt for her continued good work in setting up the UCC exhibit. We can use more members like her.

From the President

Joe Anglin

Thanks to the volunteers who have offered to paint Studio B on January 20th. I will send out a reminder shortly.

Our Workshop program is a very important part of AWI's art program each year. So far our Workshops have been successful this season in attracting participants. However, our Workshop planned for March which is our last one planned is still open for additional participants. Please consider signing up for this unique Workshop opportunity by contacting Marylee. See the Workshop brochure located in our Studios and in our Gallery for details.

Hope all are enjoying the New Year!

From the Editor:

Happy New Year!

The cutoff date for inputs for the next (February) newsletter will be Wednesday, February 14, 2018. We want to make sure all members are receiving our newsletters and email announcements. Please make sure our registrar has your correct contact information on file.
