October Guest Artist: Emily Clements

Susie Means

Please join us for our October General Meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 5:30 P.M. in our AWI Studios, 540 Barracuda Blvd. Our Guest Artist will be Emily Clements and she will be doing a demo on glazing pottery.

Emily has a bachelors in Marine biology. She needed "extra credit" so to speak, and took a wheel throwing class from Trent Berning who is featured now on Arts on Douglas. She enjoyed it so much she kept it up and now is a wonderful thrower as well as glazer. She will do a demo on stacking colors on pottery to show how they run together when fired.

Classes Update

Ruth Squitieri, Liv Witherow & Cheryl Faber

Fall classes have started and are in full swing. Remember, each teacher has a different schedule and some will not even be beginning their classes until October or November. What that means for you is that there are still openings available! The best way to find out about dates and availability is to go to our website at www.artistsworkshopinc.com and look for "sign up for classes here" on the homepage. Classes are listed by day and time, so be sure to scroll through the whole week to see what is being offered.

We are always receptive to ideas for new classes that could prove to be popular with our students and members. If there is something you would like to see being taught, that is not currently offered, let us know, and we will do our best to look into it.

The Studio Gallery

Joanne Reilly

Dear artist and supporters,

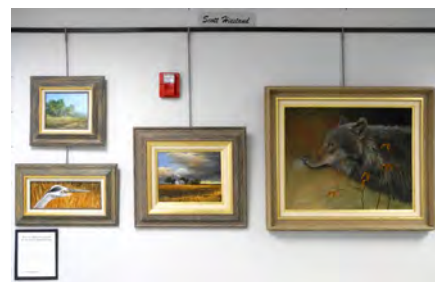

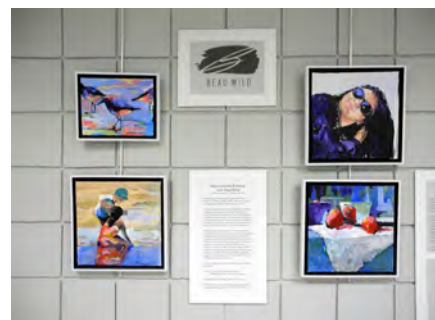

September 5 was our first General meeting of the year and the opening of the Teachers Show. The walls in studio B and the Marilyn Rolland studio gallery are filled with their wonderful works arranged by the teachers.

There are more than 20 classes to keep everyone busy with so many choices of mediums. There is at least one class for everyone to choose from so sign up for two, three or all week long! Several teachers have already begun filling their fall classes! Please visit our website for more information on the classes being offered for fall and contact the teachers by email or call them directly.

Betty Parker sold one of her paintings already and Patrick Rausch sold one of his large paintings. Most artwork is for sale so contact the artist to inquire the price if no price is shown. As students finish work in the classes, the teachers may choose to hang them along with theirs. The teachers walls and display areas will be ongoing through November for all to enjoy.

A new display cabinet is almost ready to showcase the clay and ceramic pieces by the teachers along with Raku fired pieces. This lighted cabinet setup is in the Marilyn Rolland studio gallery, purchased from Ikea, assembled by our tireless volunteers and paid for by two generous members.

We're off to a great season of creativity and sharing our passion with our community. See you in the workshop!

(top to bottom) Some of the "Teachers Show" wall arrangements on display at the Studio Gallery include those of Ruth Squitieri, Beau Wild, and Scott Hiestand.

"Small Art Show"

BREAKING NEWS...

...Coming in December, the traditional "Small Show" to be held this year in our newly updated Studio Gallery. Final plans are being formulated but the show will be judged, entry fee $10, with prizes awarded at the Holiday Luncheon (Dec. 12). Any subject and any medium including sculpture and pottery will be accepted. Maximum size will probably be 14" in either direction. Look for details in the next (November) Newsletter and start planning now!

The Gallery on Canal St.

Liz Clayton

Dear artist members,

Reminder: The gallery will be accepting entries to the "In the Abstract" themed show until Sept. 30. They will be accepted on a first come basis and space is beginning to fill. Send the following information to me at gramclayton@gmail.com: Title, Price, Medium, Size including frame, Your Name. Questions: You can call me at 386-427-3996.

There are 8 artists that have agreed to pay $20 for the featured artist status and will be shown on the panels and back wall (please refer to your directory for information about the themed shows) and there is additional room for other abstract artists with the fee being $5.00 per entry. Sculpture will be accepted as well at the $5.00 fee. It does not have to be abstract, although that would augment the appearance of the show. Please remember that these new fees are going to pay for the additional advertising that will be done for the themed shows. A beautiful glossy card is currently being printed that will be distributed throughout the area. Additional newspaper ads will take place as well. This is an effort to get more visitors into the gallery with more potential for sales.

Please stop by and see our current September show at the Gallery on Canal, "Artists' Choice". It will be up until October 4th. Congratulations to Cathy Berse for the sale of her painting...titled "Watching the Clock."

MEMBER NEWS:

Carolyn Land
"What Lies Beneath" Exhibit
Oct. 1 - 30, 2018
The Hub on Canal
Founders Gallery

Dear Friends:

I would like to invite you to join me on Saturday, October 6th from 4 to 7 p.m. for the Opening of "What Lies Beneath", in the Founders Gallery, at the HUB on Canal: 125 Canal Street, New Smyrna Beach. The creative process often leads to the discovery of new mediums to express a feeling. This series celebrates the natural function of the world: to change, grow, and evolve. The thought process moves through the corridors of time. I use a variety of materials and mediums to create textural surfaces to express the evolution of the earth and mankind's emotional interaction with it.

I would love to spend some time with you and share this newest body of work, about a subject that touches me deeply.

Community Exhibits

Bob & Patty Stinziano

This month's featured venue is the New Smyrna Beach Library. The exhibit includes two highly talented artists, Patrick Rausch and Bob Wince. The colors they both use in their sky and water complement each other perfectly. This exhibit will be coming down later this month, but if you get a chance to stop by you won't be disappointed.

Our Community Exhibits are seen by a lot of people. We receive many compliments on the art work and the venues are very happy to have us display our work. They are a great way to get your work out there. Patrick sold one of his paintings that was in the New Smyrna Library. Congratulations Patrick!

If you are interested in showing your work in any of the venues, please call the contact person for the venue you are interested in.

From the President

Cheryl Faber

We are off to a great start of what is shaping up to be a really active year! Our September members' meeting had a wonderful turnout. Despite the fact that we changed the starting time to 5:00 p.m., only one person came late.....I guess that means that you really do read the newsletters and emails that are sent your way to keep you informed. Of course, everyone was anticipating finding out about that "important project" hinted at in our last newsletter. By now, I am sure, most members are aware of our potential expansion project with Marine Discovery Center. We are in the beginning planning period so details are sparse. What I can tell you is that this opportunity will be funded by an ECHO grant, with the majority of matching funds coming from MDC and a smaller portion being raised by AWI. The benefit to us would be to be able to design a brand new addition in a way that would be more efficient and useful for our needs and would finally include finished parking and outside lighting. We know this will take a tremendous coming together of resources and enthusiasm to make this a success, but I feel (and hope!) the majority of our membership, when called upon, will be willing to jump in and do what each is able to do. This is a project that we can all be proud of and benefit from for years to come!

If anyone has any questions or concerns about the project please feel free to reach out to me by phone or email.....I am in the directory and always willing to listen!

From the Editor:

Make sure our Registrar, Kathy O'Meara, komeara999@gmail.com has your correct email address on file for our newsletter and "eblast" updates.

The cutoff date for inputs for the next (November) newsletter will be Wednesday, October 10, 2018.
