"December Delights" Awards

Sue Stoddart

Congratulations to all the Artists' Workshop members who won awards at the "December Delights" art show, held at our studio gallery. The winners were announced at the annual Holiday Luncheon on Dec. 12, where slides of the winning art works were shown while prize money and ribbons were presented.

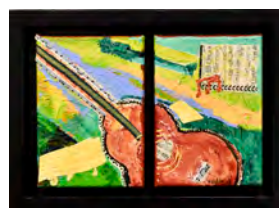

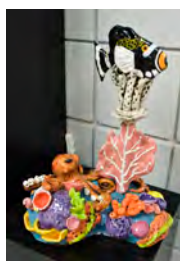

The large, eclectic exhibit includes 71 artists and 90 artworks in various media, styles, and subjects. For this show, two judges were selected from the group of Workshop instructors. Their identity was kept secret but their written comments were shared with the audience.

Visit the Marilynne Roland gallery at our Barracuda Blvd. studios now through Jan. 4 to see this excellent selection of small to medium sized paintings, drawings, and 3-dimensional works. The studios will be closed between Christmas and New Year's Day, but there will 3 more days in January to enjoy the show. Reminder: Pickup date is Sat., Jan. 5 between 9 -11 am.

Upcoming Workshops

Gail Waters

Join us at our members' meeting on January 2 for a free demonstration by nationally known watercolor artist Steve Rogers, in preparation for his upcoming February 7-9 Workshop at the Artist Workshop Studios: "My workshop will encourage students at all levels to advance their own vision and to improve the skills necessary to communicate that in watercolor. I paint and teach in a very straightforward traditional manner because I believe I can most honestly say what I want to with my brush and 'juicy' watercolor paint. Workshop participants take away from my class knowledge about light and color and the way watercolor behaves through 'mini-demos' of paint application, 'dealing with dark values in watercolor', 'painting reflections' etc. and how these operate in my full painting demonstrations."

Early signup is encouraged to secure your space. We also have Joyce McAdams mixed media workshop coming up on Feb. 16-17. Remember: Artists' Workshop members receive a discounted rate for workshops. Pick up a Workshop brochure at the AWI Studios or Gallery. See website for full details. Contact Gail Waters at, 386-943-9300, or email: waters\_g@bellsouth.net if you have any questions.

The Gallery on Canal St.

Liz Clayton

The current gallery exhibit, "In the Abstract", will be closed from Dec. 24 thru Jan. 2. I would like the current show to remain in place, however, so that the gallery does not look empty during this time.

All other art is to be picked up or dropped off on Jan. 4 from 9-11 AM. My goal is to cut down on the congestion and noise in the gallery by doing this on two days. Make sure your label info includes:

Community Exhibits

Bob & Patty Stinziano

This month's featured venue is the United Church of Christ. During the summer, we put up a hanging system there like the one in the gallery. AWI donated this to UCC and they were very happy to have it. Maggie Arndt has put together a lovely exhibit here with her own work as well as work from Sue Stoddart and Irene Moody. The beautiful work from these three artists shouldn't be missed. If you would like to show your work here, please contact Maggie.

We took down the exhibit we had at the Edgewater City Hall. We only have this venue for two months out of the year. They thanked AWI for the exhibit and received many compliments on the artwork. Please contact us if you would like to show your work here next year.

From the President

Cheryl Faber

(above) Thank you Don Johnson and Susie Means for all your hard work on the Holiday Luncheon! (left) Gino Conti entertains the guests. (below) AWI members come through again with plenty of canned good donations for the food bank.

Thanks to all who attended our annual Holiday Luncheon at Sugar Mill Country Club. A special thanks to Don Johnson for being chairman, and to Susie Means for the beautiful clay bowls and ornaments that were given away to some lucky winners! Those in attendance had the opportunity to meet and hear from our new (and very nice) mayor, Russ Owen. Of course the big excitement of the luncheon, was the awarding of the prizes for our judged "December Delights" show, thanks to the hard work and organizational skills of Sue Stoddart and her volunteers. Having live music performed by Gino Conti, really made it a very festive event. We collected a large amount of canned goods, which Halifax Urban Ministries was very grateful to receive.

Take this little break during the holidays and rest up for what looks like a very busy winter/spring season. New and continuing classes, as well as our scheduled workshops, will fill our studios with learning, camaraderie and energy. For the first time, we will have a tent in front of our Canal Street Gallery, to distribute information about AWI, during the three day Images Art Festival in January. We also have our Member's Show and the Lagoonacy Show to plan ahead for. Our first meeting of the year will be right after New Years Day.....Wednesday, January 2, 2019. So, make a New Year's resolution and come to the meeting and see a demonstration by Watercolorist, Steve Rogers! In the meantime, I wish you all a happy and peaceful holiday!

Cheryl
