"Art of Pouring (Watermedia)"

MISSION STATEMENT

"The Artists' Workshop of New Smyrna Beach, Inc. strives to enrich the community by offering a supportive, vibrant environment which promotes opportunities to learn, create, exhibit and appreciate art."

Non-Profit Org. Established 1958

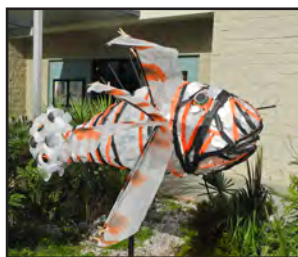

The Marine Discovery Center and Artists' Workshop will again be hosting the annual Lagoonacy event, coming up on Saturday April 13th. AWI will host children's art in Studios A and B. The Children Art Activities include: Clay and Big Art Painting in Studio A; three or four smaller art table projects in Studio B; and Sidewalk Chalk Art outside. MDC will host Environmental Lectures in Studio C. Studio C will be used for brief scheduled environmental and wildlife lectures throughout the day by environmental naturalists. Seating for twenty will be provided.

We need a leader and volunteer helpers for the six or seven art activities listed above. If you are interested in leading an activity or helping, please contact Joe Anglin, janglin43@gmail.com, 407-810-1900. It's always fun and rewarding interacting with the kids and the families! An overall schedule of Lagoonacy events can be found at www.marinediscoverycenter.org/lagoonacyevents.

LAGOONACY ART SHOW (Studios):

As part of Marine Discovery Center's annual fundraiser, AWI participates to help raise awareness of our coastal and Florida environment. We work as partners to engage the community to appreciate, learn and participate.

This year AWI Studio Gallery chairman, JoAnn Reilly, wishes to invite our current members to enter their work within the following theme featuring local Florida lagoon species and land species. Other works can include people of various ages interacting with the environment in healthy and conscientious ways. Florida lagoon and land species label must include the Latin names when sending your information. Label info required- YOUR NAME, PHONE #, EMAIL, SPECIES NAME OR TITLE, SIZE OF PIECE, MEDIUM USED, PRICE OR NOT FOR SALE (NFS). Get to know the local species and start creating! Art delivery date is April 6th, 9:30a.m. - Noon. The show opens April 13. Their will be a limited amount of entries. Contact: Studio Gallery Chairman, JoAnn Reilly, jrsnb028@gmail.com.

Lionfish "Eco-Friendly" Sculpture needs your plastic bottles! AWI member Gail Waters is creating a Lionfish sculpture in front of the MDC main entrance & needs your clean, plastic water bottles & lids to help complete it. Drop them off in bags along AWI back fence (near kiln). Thanks!

Ruth Squitieri, Liv Witherow & Cheryl Faber

Classes are full and hopping - the parking lot is crowded morning and afternoon! But not enough that it can't accommodate more students! Browse the website (the Learn/Classes section at www.artistsworkshopinc.com) to find a class to your liking and contact the instructor to see if the class is accepting any new participants. Upon special request, a new class was added and is starting next month.

Instructor: Ruth Squitieri

Learn about the main principles of painting in oils, based on the classic atelier training. This is for the novice to oils! We'll cover color mixing and color theory, preparing your canvas and how to compose a painting. We'll explore the limited palette and paint a simple still life and landscape before starting our own project under the guidance of the instructor. Contact instructor for details and materials list, krautgraphics@gmail.com, 386-451-6857, or visit the website.

Final Workshop of Season

Gail Waters

Join us at our Members Meeting on March 6 for a free demonstration by water media artist Gail Bokor, in preparation for her upcoming March 16-17 Workshop at the Artist Workshop Studios: "THE ART OF POURING" (watermedia). The workshop involves a different approach to applying paint! Exciting results from doing dirty pours, to swiping, to a more controlled approach. You will watch "paint play" as pigments merge together to form shapes and cells. Using acrylic, watercolor and even tempera paint, you will see almost immediate results, and may take your paintings as far as your experience will let you. This workshop is geared to all levels of creative experience. Warning: Highly addictive!

This is our final workshop of the season so sign up early to secure your space. (NOTE: The Joe Palmerio workshop on March 12-13 was canceled for medical reasons.) Remember: Artists' Workshop members receive a discounted rate for workshops. Pick up a Workshop brochure at the AWI Studios or Gallery. See website for full details. Contact Gail Waters at, 386-943-9300, or email: waters_g@bellsouth.net if you have any questions.

Art Talk: History of Plein Air Painting

The Gallery on Canal St.

Liz Clayton

Our new show in the Gallery on Canal St. opens on March 2. It is "Artists' Choice" and is a one-month show. There is no theme for the March show, no fees, and all mediums are accepted; it will also feature winners from the annual Members' Show. If you were a winner in the Members' Show and enter your painting, I will place your ribbon next to it if you want me to. I am scheduling two times for pick up and delivery of art: Thursday, Feb. 28 from 1-3 p.m. and Friday, Mar. 1 from 9-11 a.m.

Beginning in March, I'm changing the opening hours for the gallery to 10 am - 4 pm from Mon. through Fri. You will be able to choose to sit in the gallery from either 10 a.m. - 1 p.m., or 1-4 p.m. In addition to adding 2 hours a day that we will be open, it will shorten your time in the gallery from 4 to 3 hours.

Please send your label information to gramclayton@gmail.com or 386-427-3996 NO LATER than Feb. 26. Please include: Name of Artwork, Medium, Size including frame, Price, Your name, also indicate if you will be bringing a ribbon.

PLEASE MAKE NOTE OF THE PICK UP AND DROP OFF TIMES, SINCE IT IS MEANT TO ELIMINATE CONGESTION AND REDUCE NOISE IN OUR LITTLE GALLERY!

Congratulations to Sally Gyokeres on the sale of her painting in the "In Love with Landscapes" show (below). This makes seven paintings sold out of the current show!

Also, let me know if you are interested in being a featured artist for the April themed show, "Wonderful Watercolor." I have two panels left.

Community Exhibits

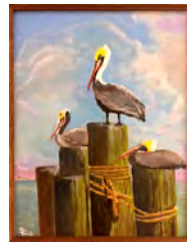

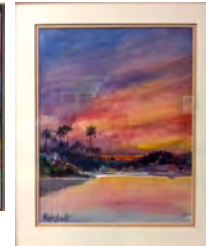

Bob & Patty Stinziano

Maggie Arndt has put together a really nice exhibit at the United Church of Christ. Maggie has some of her own work here as well as the art of Jean Banas, Elizabeth Bennett and Pat Cousineau. Abstract, landscape and more from these talented artists. It is a beautiful, colorful exhibit and is not to be missed. Please contact Maggie if you would like to show your work here.

We are working on getting the Daytona Library as another one of our venues. This library was recently renovated and has a nice area where the art work will be hung. The area is right by the front desk and will be seen by a lot of people. The coordinator at the library would like to have different organizations use the space for two months at a time. Right now the Southeast Museum of Photography has an exhibit and AWI will be next. They also have space in their teen section for some of Regina Wise's T.A.P. students to show their work.

Steven Ward IMAGES Print Raffle

AWI President Cheryl Faber shows off the autographed, limited edition giclee print of "Regatta" by Steven Ward, poster artist of the 2019

IMAGES festival at last month's members meeting. We will be raffling off the print at the March 6 members meeting. Suggested donation for tickets is $1 each or 3 for $5.

From the President

Cheryl Faber

If you attended the Images Art Festival this year, I hope you visited AWI's tent, which was located in front of our Canal Street Gallery. Hundreds of people dropped by, picked up our brochures and visited our gallery.....it was a huge success! Our goal was twofold- first, to spread the word about the classes, workshops and events that we host and, also, to show our intention to support and be involved with other organizations within our community. To expand upon that goal, on Saturday April 13, we will be opening our studios during MDC's Annual LAGOONACY event and offer activities for children, talks by naturalists and an art show featuring coastal art. Next October 20-26, we will, again, be partnering with MDC on the PLEIN AIR PAINT OUT. This week-long festival is a celebration of nature and the beautiful environment we are lucky enough to see every day. Activities for the Paint Out will be centered around the grounds of AWI/MDC. Opportunities abound to learn, volunteer, get involved or just have fun!

Our studios are humming with activity right now: filled to capacity with our members and our much appreciated "snowbirds". I love seeing that and feeling the creative energy flowing between everyone. I just want you all to know that you are not only needed to fill our classes, but you are also needed for your ideas, your time, and most of all, your enthusiasm. So, if you see me walking around the studios and you have an idea or an issue you would like to talk about, stop me....I am always open to good ideas and interesting conversations!

From the Editor:

Hope you are enjoying our 2019 activities. Members: Make sure our Registrar, Kathy O'Meara, komeara999@gmail.com has your correct email address on file for our newsletter and "eblast" updates.

The cutoff date for inputs for the next (March) newsletter will be Wednesday, March 13, 2019.
