January Guest Artist: Pam Coffman

Cheryl Faber

Please join us for our first members meeting of 2018 on Wednesday, January 3rd at 6:30 PM. Our featured speaker will be Pam Coffman, professional artist, art competition judge, teacher, and Curator of Education at the Museum of Art - Deland, FL. Topics to be covered as time permits will be; how to prepare your work for art exhibitions and juried competitions; presenting your artwork in a professional manner; the do's and don'ts when submitting your artwork for judging; what judges are looking for in artwork; and finally, what you need to know if you want to get your work in a gallery. Just in time to learn everything you need to know before the Members' Show; come with your questions. This is sure to be an evening filled with lively and knowledgeable discussion!

Classes Update

Ruth Squitieri, Cheryl Faber, & Liv Witherow

The Winter/Spring classes brochure will be available at our first membership meeting of the new year, on January 3. Besides the on-going classes that started in the fall and will continue on in January, we have added some exciting new ones. On Monday afternoons, Ruth Squitieri will be teaching a class in Pen & Ink with Calligraphy and Goldleafing. That evening, Nancy Mills has added a Beginner Clay Sculpture Class for our members who can't make daytime classes. On Tuesday afternoon, January 9, Betty Parker will be starting a second drawing class. We have also added a class for "real" beginners, on Thursday mornings called The Basics of Painting, taught by Ruth Squitieri. Thursday night, Yolonda Pelz will be teaching a class called Explorations in Clay.

We have also added some new special short term classes. There will be a three day Clay Paper Sculpture Class with Maureen McLeod; Three day long intensive Impressionistic painting classes with Beau Wild; A Saturday morning Japanese Fish Rubbing Class with Kenneth Nusbaum; A two day Plein Air Class with Cathy Berse; and a class on how to alter an abstract painting you are unhappy with into a realistic one, taught by Trish Vevera. All of these classes are in addition to our year long short term classes like Raku Firing, Photoshop, Web Design, Fused Glass, and Matting & Framing. (NOTE: The 3-hour photoshop & 3-hour web design classes will be in late Jan., dates to be determined by those signed up. Contact Lisa Brooks at 386-402-0782 or email: lisabruux@gmail.com for more info.)

PLEASE NOTE: the sign up process will change in the new year. Instead of adding your name to the clipboards hanging in the studio, we will be posting a summary of available classes, along with teacher contact information so that you can sign up with them directly. Please make sure that you pick up a class brochure for all the details or check our schedule on our website: www.artistsworkshopinc.com.

We are excited about all of the classes that we have available. Please take a few moments to pick up a brochure and see all we have to offer. It is going to be a great year! Ruth, Cheryl, & Liv

Upcoming Workshops

Marylee Voegele

Your Workshop Committee hopes our members are enjoying the Christmas Season and are looking forward to bringing in a New Year!

We know that those of you who have signed up for the Robert Simone Workshop "Painting Coastal Scenery" have a great few days to look forward to on January 12, 13, 14. We are excited to have Jane Slivka returning to teach "The Freedom of Acrylics," a two-day workshop on February 9, 10. We are calling on our members who like to paint intuitively in a semi-abstract or abstract manner to get signed up for "Creating Paintings with the 'Wow' Factor." Sue St. John, AWS, is an award-winning artist who lives in Indiana. You may use acrylic or watercolor in her Workshop. Though her Workshop is not until March 16, 17, 18 we have airfare involved here so please help us by signing up early. For those of you who paint traditionally and would like to loosen up a bit, this will be a great Workshop for you. If I can answer any questions you might have, don't hesitate to call me, Marylee Voegele, at 386-957-4331.

OPENINGS STILL AVAILABLE

January 12, 13, 14, 2018

DEC. 2 - 21: "THINK GRAND, CREATE SMALL" JUDGED EXHIBIT

(Artists' Workshop Gallery, 115 Canal St., NSB)

Hours: Monday - Friday, 11 A.M. - 3 P.M.

Remaining Viewing Days: Now thru Thursday, Dec. 21

Closed: Dec. 22, 2107 - Jan. 4, 2018 (Holidays)

Pick Up Date: Friday, Jan. 5th, 9 - 11 A.M.

Seasons greetings dear Artists and supporters,

I am proud to say that our December judged Exhibit, "Think Grand, Create Small", is exceptional, with 83 entries of artwork in total ranging from oil, pastel, acrylic, watercolor, photography, mixed medium, encaustic, hand-felted characters encased in a shadow box, fused-glass figurative, clay sculpture with embossed designs, Raku sculpture, and Raku fired clay vessel. The styles vary from abstract, impressionistic, contemporary, classic, and Plein Air. I commend all of you for your talent and creativity and taking the challenge creating small works for this show. Congratulations to the ten awarded-winning artists.

I would like to take a moment to thank my team for their help with receiving, hanging, arranging and labeling this exhibit. Thank you Patrick Rausch, Kathy Kerrigan, and Valeh Levy (for stepping in at a moment's notice), for your eyes, hands and support! It wouldn't have happened without you. And thanks to Nancy Shea for printing our labels! A very big thanks to Mary Peschel-Herlehy for the slide presentation for our luncheon. This is high tech stuff to make this happen!

A special thanks to Trish Thompson, our judge for this complex show. Trish was presented with the difficult task of choosing only 10 works of art in a mix of professional, beginner, painting to clay, photography to collage and a host of other media for awards. It took several hours of contemplation and she requested I add more awards because there were so many other pieces she felt should be awarded, but this is what we all have learned in entering any juried or judged exhibit, there are a fixed number of awards to work with. Being the chairman has shown me the challenges that comes with deciding how to do awards and I hope in the future it will have categories.

Gallery closes Friday, December 22 and reopens January 5 for dropoff/pickup and opening for the first Saturday of 2018. View our members original artwork in the JANUARY themed exhibit, "DEPTH, DRAMA, LUMINOSITY", plus a Special addition "MASK MISCHIEF" in ceramics!

Happy Holidays from the gallery committee!

Community Exhibits

Bob & Patty Stinziano

This month's featured venue is the Edgewater Library, where the artwork of Jim Houpt is now on display. Be sure to stop by to see his work.

We are hopeful we can soon get some wall space again in the Florida Hospital to display artwork. We are working at getting the Lexington Assisted Living Facility as another venue to display work. Also, the Brannon Civic Center in NSB has been brought to our attention, so we will be looking into that as well. We wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

From the President

Joe Anglin

Here are some holiday highlights from our December activities. Many thanks to all who made these events possible. Wishing you all a wonderful holiday season and a Happy New Year!

Thanks to emcee Bob Grayson, luncheon chair Don Johnson, and all who attended and helped make the annual Holiday Luncheon on Dec. 8 a success. (clockwise from top left) New Smyrna Beach Mayor Hathaway brings a check for the Artists' Workshop with his holiday bag of goodies! Members take time to socialize and enjoy the holiday tidings at Sugar Mill Country Club. Liz Clayton and Robert Wince collect donations for the Joanne Rafferty painting raffle.

Liv Witherow and Katty Smith with their "Think Grand, Create Small" awards and artwork.

The Canal St. Gallery Christmas tree is decorated in brushes, brochures and a garland of Artists' Workshop Decals for the season!
