2021 NSB Plein Air Paint Out

Melissa Schwenn

Two Words: Great Success!! I'm thrilled to share the 2021 Plein Air Paint Out was a Great Success!!! Once again Artists' Workshop partnered with Marine Discover Center for this "Discover Nature through Art" event. A special Thank You to our Presenting Sponsor Brown & Brown, we look forward to growing this partnership in the coming years. This event would not be possible without our Sponsors, Patrons and Artist Hosts. Your contributions keep the event growing and allows us to adjust to our community needs. Lastly, but still extremely important, a huge shout out to our Volunteers!!! We had over 160 positions to fill throughout the week and our volunteers stepped up and made sure we were covered. Also, we are so fortunate to have returning teams that cover specific areas each year. Building these teams allows us to grow, so thank you!!

Artist's Workshop was happy to sponsor Kids Paint Too!!, providing supplies and bussing the students to AWI. Cathy Berse hosted 37 children from NSB Middle School, teaching them about Plein Air Painting history and giving them an opportunity to paint en plein air here at the MDC/AWI property. Thank you to all her volunteers that helped make it possible.

Our guest artists performed several art demonstrations here on MDC/AWI property and throughout New Smyrna Beach daily. All were very well received and had 20-30 people in attendance at each demonstration. (cont. on page 2)

From the President

Cheryl Faber

Dear Members,

To say we had a successful Paint Out this year, would be putting it mildly! Between all of the support and enthusiasm of our Board Members, volunteers, businesses in the community, Patrons, Sponsors, Artists and just plain Art Lovers, it was our best Paint Out Yet! The icing on the cake was the fabulous weather. Mother Nature gave us.....a perfect week for plein air painting! Thank you to everyone involved!

We are looking ahead to many other "get togethers" on the horizon. I am keeping my fingers crossed that the downturn in numbers for Covid allows us more face to face interaction. Plans are in the works for the Holiday Membership Luncheon and we are also hoping to be able to start having monthly membership meetings starting in January, and of course, we are continuing on with our annual Members Show in March, as well as the "Small" show in December. A new "Big, Bold, and Abstract" show will be in the Studio Gallery in January/February and Liz Clayton continues to organize new and creative shows for the Canal Street Gallery. We are exploring the possibility of adding some new classes and two day workshops for the winter and spring season, so stay informed by reading your newsletters and constant contact emails for the latest updates on what is happening at Artists' Workshop!

2021 NSB Plein Air Paint Out (Continued)

Melissa Schwenn

And finally, at our Grand Finale, Outrigger's did an incredible job with feeding our huge turn out to see the gallery. The Blending of the Brushes concluded with an auction of the painting to Amy Cleveland; Congratulations!

Melissa Schwenn, Cheryl Faber, Chris Kling, and Chad Truxall present Chris Kling's winning cover art for the 2022 Paint Out.

The Cover Artist for our 2022 Event will be Chris Kling for her work titled the "Watcher". The dates for next year's event are October 18 through 22, 2022. We are already exchanging ideas and looking for more volunteers, so keep this event in mind. We hope to see you there next year!

The Gallery on Canal St.

Liz Clayton

The pick up and delivery dates for our small works judged show, "Deck the Walls," HAVE BEEN CHANGED due to the fact that I will be out of town from Dec. 1 through Dec. 6. Please make note of the new pick up and delivery dates: either MONDAY, NOV. 29th FROM 11AM-2 P.M., OR TUESDAY, NOV. 30th FROM 9-11 A.M. Your paintings will be up for the First Sat. Gallery Stroll in December but will not be judged until Dec. 7th. Awards will be presented at the Holiday luncheon on Dec. 8th.

Here are the details about the small works judged show:

1. Entry fee is $20.00. This pays for the judge, ribbons and prize money. The amount of prize money I am able to give depends on the number of entries.
2. Work can be no more than two years old and cannot have been entered in a previously judged show. Paintings must be your own work and cannot be copied from published sources such as magazines or the internet.
3. Image size is no more than 8"x 10". (This is a change from last year.) I am not concerned about the frame size.
4. There is no theme for this show. Don't let the title fool you into thinking it's a Christmas/Holiday theme!
5. Please begin sending your label information for this judged show NOW to gramclayton@gmail.com (Title/Medium/Size/Price (or NFS)/ Your Name).

Congratulations to Pam Sawyer on the sale of three paintings out of the current "Something Yellow" show as well as Valeh Levy, Sallee Langley and Gale Saunders for each selling one of their paintings.

Starting in December, we will go back to being open from 10am-4pm on Tuesday through Friday. Sitters can choose to sit from 10am-1pm or 1pm-4pm. Hours stay the same on Saturdays.

Be thinking ahead to the Jan./Feb. show - "Big and Beautiful." There is no theme - except size - for this show and no featured artists. The entry fee is $10 and there will be room for only one painting per person. The MINIMUM size is 36 in. in either direction and no larger than 46 in. framed. I will still hang small paintings on the wire racks at a charge of $5.00. These fees will cover the cost of the extra advertising for this show. Space is going to be limited so send your information early! I already have one entry!

Studio Gallery

Joanne Reilly

"BIG AND BOLD ABSTRACTS": JAN - FEB 2022:

During the months of January and February, 2022, our Studio Gallery, 540 Barracuda Blvd., will be presenting a show entitled "Big and Bold Abstracts". This show will run around the same time as the Canal St. Gallery's "Big and Beautiful" show, giving our artists who love to paint large many opportunities to show their work.

As noted in the title, the studio gallery show will be limited to Abstract art and will be co-chaired by Nancy Hagood and Carson Kapp, with Joanne Reilly, chairman of our studio gallery giving assistance. If you are interested in participating in this show, here are the facts you need to know.

KEY DATES: The dates of the studio show will be Sunday, January 23, 2022 for drop off, with pick up being Sunday, February 27th. A "Meet the Artist" opening reception will be on Saturday evening, January 29, 2022.

CUTOFF: Please let us know by Wednesday, November 17, 2021 if you would like to be in the show. Entry will be decided upon by "first come, first serve", since there will only be room for about 22 large paintings. One side of the artwork has to be a minimum of 36 inches, but no larger than 60 inches. This will not be a judged show, and prizes will not be awarded. The $10 entry fee (per painting) will be used for extra publicity, to 'hopefully' get more of the community out to see our shows!

Send your commitment to participate to artistsworkshopnsb@gmail.com by NOVEMBER 17, and include the size of your work if known and your email address and best contact number. This is only open to members, but act quickly to reserve your spot!

Judge Trish Thompson in December 2020, announcing the winners of the Artists' Workshop "Deck the Walls" small works show.

The Artists' Workshop mourns the loss of a dear friend, local artist, and AWI exhibit judge, Trish Thompson. Our deepest sympathies go out to all her family and friends.

Artist and educator Patricia Kelly Thompson, age 74, of New Smyrna Beach, died peacefully Monday September 27, 2021 at Halifax Health Hospice, Edgewater. More than just an artist, she was an irreplaceable, influential anchor in the community. She made people believe in who they are and what they are capable of.

Born and raised in Panama City, FL, she completed her bachelor and masters' degrees in studio art and art education & constructive design at Florida State University. She served as Curator of Education at the Museum of Arts and Sciences, Daytona Beach; and Curator of Education at the Southeast Museum of Photography at Daytona State College. She attained the rank of Professor in the Department of Cultural Arts at Daytona State College, retiring in 2013, having taught painting, design and art appreciation courses. Trish was a founding artist at Arts on Douglas of the Atlantic Center for the Arts in New Smyrna Beach, where she was selected to participate in four residencies at the ACA.

She is survived by her husband of 34 years James J. Murphy, 2 children, and 2 grandchildren.

Community Exhibits

Bob & Patty Stinziano

This month's featured Community Exhibit is the United Church of Christ. They recently decided to stop using their room temporarily for any meetings or any other functions because of the pandemic. Some of the art work we had hanging in there has been taken out, but there are still a number pieces there for viewing. If you are in the area, you can stop in to see the art.

The Edgewater City Hall which had stopped showing art work because of the pandemic, has now opened up again for us to show some of our art. They have a very nice room for meetings and other functions. We will be hanging artwork there at the beginning of November and it will hang until mid December. If you are interested in showing work in one of our exhibits, you can contact one of the committee members below:

"Painting Time: A Novel"

- by Maylis de Kerangal

"An enchanted, atmospheric, and highly aesthetic coming-of-age novel, Painting Time is an intimate and unsparing exploration of craft, inspiration, and the contours of the contemporary art world. As she did in her acclaimed novels The Heart and The Cook, Maylis de Kerangal unravels a tightly wound professional world to reveal the beauty within."
