From the President

Cheryl Faber

Dear Members,

As I sit here at my desk watching the wind and rain from our second Hurricane of the year, I am reminded of all the challenges we have faced in the last couple of years and yet have managed to keep our doors open and even flourish. From the years of Covid and all its' variations, to construction obstacles, parking inconveniences, increased fees (not always popular!) and community disasters caused by storms, we have stayed true to our mission of teaching, learning and providing a comfortable and welcoming space in which to do it all! You all deserve "Kudos" and our thanks for continuing your memberships, attending classes, workshops and special events and doing it all with generosity and enthusiasm. We have an incredible membership that I am thankful for every day!

The Holidays are approaching so quickly....make sure to check and see when the studios will be closed (dates at left).....but, in the meantime, I hope you will consider attending our annual Holiday Luncheon at the Brannon Center, Wednesday, December, 14th, starting at 11:30 a.m. Once again, a delicious lunch will be provided by Riverside catering, wine and other beverages will be served, awards will be announced for the holiday "small" show and Frank Ferrante, a long time member and former teacher at AWI will be having a book signing of his autobiographical "coffee table" art book entitled "Inspired by Nature". This book will have a special sale price for the holidays of $19.50 and would make a lovely gift! All of this information is available in other places in the newsletter and we will also be sending out email invitations. DON'T FORGET GIVING TUESDAY: The Tuesday after Thanksgiving is the national day of giving to non-profits. We will be sending out information about that day as well, so you can plan your "end of year" tax free contributions accordingly. I know there are many deserving organizations out there, and we all have our favorites, but please consider adding Artists' Workshop to your list!

Then it is the New Year! New classes, many new workshops, the Members Show in March, the High School Show and several shows at the Canal Street Gallery that offer challenging and fun subjects. This year is flying by at an alarming pace, so let's slow down as the holidays approach and take the chance to visit with each other during the Holiday Luncheon....

Hope to see you there,
Cheryl

Workshops Update

Melissa Schwenn

Here's a preview of the upcoming Winter 2023 Workshops (below) which include a Barbara Ortiz pastel painting, Robert Simone painting, and Ruth Squitieri oil portrait workshop. January/February will be here before you know it so sign up now! For the latest information, go directly to our website at www.artistsworkshopinc.com/workshops which gives info on workshops, supply lists, instructor links, and registration forms. The website also has our complete 2023 Winter and Spring workshops lineup (at left) so you can start planning now.

Barbara Ortiz: January 21-22, 2023

"Pastel Painting: Expressive Color and Harmony"

You will explore a variety of pastel surfaces and underpainting techniques. Barbara will emphasize mark making, value structure and color harmony. On day two you will choose from a couple of photos to create a finished painting, incorporating the techniques and becoming comfortable with the process.

Dates: Saturday, Jan. 21 thru Sunday Jan. 22, 9:30 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.

Fees: AWI Members: $250; non-members: $300

Robert Simone: February 4-5, 2023

"Taking Your Art to the Next Level"

The fine art of painting is more of a journey than a destination. We want to get to that next level. Taking your paintings to the next level is a matter of having a principled approach, knowing the best ways to practice, taking time to experiment, facing our fears, turning weaknesses into strengths, and getting some fair and honest feedback. (Website: www.robertjsimone.com)

Dates: Saturday, Feb. 4 thru Sunday Feb. 5, 9:00 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.

Fees: AWI Members: $300; non-members: $350

Ruth Squitieri: February 18-19, 2023

"Beyond the Zorn Palette: A Fresh Approach to Painting the Modern Portrait" (intermediate oil painters)

We will review the popular Zorn palette for painting portraits and apply a modern twist to it by using fresher, high-key colors and lively reference photos. We will do some color exercises that you can apply to any other subject on your own, then paint individual features of the face, and culminate in creating one portrait together. (Website: www.paintingsbyruth.com)

Dates: Saturday, Feb. 18 thru Sunday Feb. 19, 9:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Fees: AWI Members: $250; non-members: $300

Harold Garde Tribute: For many of us here in the New Smyrna community, Harold was a teacher. He shared his wisdom with kindness, generosity and wit. I was lucky enough to have helped him in his studio. I'm sure I join many of you with sadness at his loss, but also with gratitude and joy for his presence in our lives. He would say, "Get to work and get your work up on walls". His memory is a blessing. A Memorial Celebration with family and friends will be held Sunday, December 11th from 11am--1pm at the Mills Gallery in Orlando. (courtesy Gertrude Havu)

In Memoriam Harold Garde (1923-2022)

The Artists' Workshop mourns the loss of renowned artist, teacher, mentor, and AWI special friend, Harold Garde. Our deepest sympathies go out to all his family and friends.

Artist Harold Garde, age 99, an influential Abstract Expressionist painter died Monday October 11, 2022 in Florida. He was the originator of the Strappo technique that combined painting and printmaking. Born in New York City to Eastern European Jewish immigrants, Harold served in the U.S. Air Force from 1943-45 during World War II. He went to art school at the University of Wyoming on the GI Bill. Garde returned to New York to complete his master's degree at Columbia and then entered the city's burgeoning arts scene alongside artists like Andy Warhol, Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko. He and his first wife had four children, and he worked as an interior designer and later as a teacher to support them. He still painted and absorbed himself in the culture, if only on a part-time basis.

Artist Harold Garde had technically retired when he moved to Maine in 1983, but in many ways his career was just starting. He experienced arguably his most productive period in the '80s and '90s from his waterfront studio in Belfast, ME where he painted bold and provocative abstract pieces. His paintings are part of the permanent collections at several museums around the country, including at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

The Gallery on Canal St.

Liz Clayton

Our current show in the Gallery on Canal, "Florida Then and Now" will be up through Nov. 30. Congratulations to Henry Gerson, Cathy Berse, Liz Clayton and Grace Foley who have sold paintings out of this show.

Our last show in the gallery this year is "Deck the Walls" which is our annual small works judged show. There is NO THEME for this show...it just sounds like a Christmas theme. Label information for this show needs to be sent NO LATER THAN

Nov. 29. Pick up for the current show and delivery for the Dec. show is either Dec. 1 from 11-3 or Dec. 2 from 9-11. Judging takes place during the second week in December, and awards will be presented at the holiday luncheon on Dec. 14.

RULES FOR THE "DECK THE WALLS" SHOW:

- Painting size no larger than 8" x 10". (This does not include the frame.)
- All members of the Artists' Workshop are eligible to enter.
- Entry fee is $20. You can enter more than one.
- Photographs of the same size are accepted.
- Sculptures must be able to sit on a pedestal.
- Work should be no older than two years and can not have been in another judged show.
- Work must be original - no prints accepted.
- Works, for this show only, do not need to be for sale.

SAVE THE DATE!

2023 ARTISTS' WORKSHOP
65th Annual MEMBERS' SHOW

Awards Ceremony and Reception
Sunday Brunch,
March 12, 2023
Held at AWI Studios

The Awards Ceremony and Reception for the 65th Annual Members' Show of the Artists Workshop will be held on Sunday, March 12th, 2023. We will again hold it during the day with a delicious Brunch, followed by the Awards Presentation. Now is a good time to be thinking and planning about the piece that you'd like to enter in this show! If you are a member in good standing by December 12, 2022, (please be sure to get your dues paid by this date) you are eligible to enter a piece in this show. Intake of artwork is planned for March 3 & 4, and there will be a few rules about size, etc. so watch for those in the coming weeks in your email and on the AW website

We are excited to announce that with the change in schedule of Studio Classes, the Show will be open for viewing the week of March 5th when the studios are between regular classes. This means A) we will not be interrupting teachers and students during class time, and B) we have additional options for hanging the show, as it may be possible to add some free-standing display space, and we won't be constrained by the tables and chairs. Lots more detail to follow, but keep the date in mind and please plan to join us for a fun and relaxed Sunday Brunch on March 12th. Hope to see you there!

2022 NSB Plein Air Paint Out

Melissa Schwenn

On the heels of Hurricane Ian, our Plein Air Committee was concerned about how this year's Paint Out would be accepted with all the devastation so many people suffered. However, once again, our dedicated Sponsors and Patrons came through for us! It was a busy week, with two daily demos, one in town and one on the MDC/AWI Campus, Night Paints at JB's Fish Camp and River Deck, and our Collector's Reception and Grand Finale Events. Attendance was more than we could have hoped for. Over seventy Volunteers and 760 volunteer hours made it all possible, along with the generous hospitality of our housing hosts. Our teams return every year, making it efficient and a whole lot of fun. We can't thank everyone involved in this event enough for their continued support year after year!

Kids Paint Too had 35 students from New Smyrna Beach Middle School. Cathy Berse and her army of volunteers demonstrated what "en Plein Air" is as the students toured the Wet Gallery for inspiration and techniques and then created their own masterpieces. It was a great opportunity for these students to experience Plein Air.

Overall, we are thrilled with the proceeds from this Annual Fund Raiser. These funds ensure that our studio is well maintained and staffed so our Classes and Workshops can continue to grow. We are always grateful for the support of our membership and our community! The Cover Artist for our 2023 Paint Out will be Charles Dickinson for his work entitled "A Beautiful Day". This painting is an excellent example of MDC and AWI's combined efforts to protect the Indian River Lagoon as well as teach interested artists the skills necessary to capture nature through art. Again, we sincerely thank everyone that came out and supported our two non-profits.

Community Exhibits

Bob & Patty Stinziano

There is a new exhibit at the New Smyrna Library. The beautiful artwork of Cindy Merchant and Connie Rogers is an exhibit the you shouldn't miss. We already received a lot of positive feedback on the colorful paintings of these two talented artists. The staff at the New Smyrna Library is always happy when we put up an exhibit and they look forward to seeing new artwork. If you would like to show your work here or any of our community exhibits, please contact us.
