

Painting Luminous Birds Michelle Held Supply List Basics:

An easel and a pallet for oil probably glass or wood. If you are comfortable with grey paper pallet, that works too. Sketch book and pencils for drawing

Paints: This is my pallet, however it can all be mixed from a limited pallet. I just like to share the brands, so that you have a record of it!

Titanium...I use Blockxx

*Brilliant yellow light(I love Richeson) Lemon Yellow Gamblin

Cadmium yellow Gamblin

*Indian Yellow Michael Harding

cadmium orange Gamblin naphthol red Gamblin

Quinacridone rose Michael Harding ultramarine blue (I LOVE Michael Harding) Transparent red oxide Gamblin

ivory black Gamblin

Some Favorite Convenience colors *Raidiant blue Gamblin

*Raidiant violet by gamblin

*Pale Violet Michael Hardin

*Kings blue deep by Michael Harding

The * is on my pallet but you can be fine without them, they are able to be mixed The bottom 4 are my favorites (again not necessary but I LLOVE those)

Surfaces:

I prefer working on panels whenever possible. I personally love Centurion universal primed. Have a nice selection of canvas but I would like to demo some color mixing!! You can also use Canvas pads as well

Other:

- Pallet knife
- Q tips
- Michelle has a Rosemary brush set coming soon
- Brushes I will be using Rosemarys Shiraz Filberts
-including a soft brush such as a blender or mop(I love rosemary mundy
- Razor blade to clean pallet
- Gamsol (mineral spirits)grab a medium sized
- Neo McGilp or liquin
- Paper towel ...I use viva, I like it a lot
- grocery bags for trash
- Wet-ones wipes keep the hands clean
- I also use Murphy's oil soap to clean my brushes and dawn soap